Ethics and Organizational Practice Sara Louise Muhr, Bent M. Sørensen, Steen Vallentin, 2010-01-01 Morality and ethics are at the heart of business practice but the concepts themselves are usually assumed rather than investigated The chapters in this book refuse such easy answers and force the reader to confront their own assumptions about ethics provoking conclusions that are both disturbing and exciting Martin Parker University of Leicester UK This timely book provides a collection of critical explorations and discussions of managerial ethics and their moral foundations It is concerned with theoretical conceptual and practical matters and thus provides an open and broad approach to a very dense field of enquiry Ethics and Organizational Practice challenges established theory in management studies and in particular provides a post foundational argument to conventional business ethics The contributors cover topics from corporate social responsibility and individual morality to primatology psychopathology and corruption They provide a multi disciplinary and multi dimensional exploration of managerial ethics and its moral foundation presenting a critical understanding of the conditions of ethics in modern organizations The book presents a philosophically informed critique of simplified notions of managerial and organizational ethics making it an excellent resource for postgraduate students and scholars of business ethics critical management corporate social responsibility international business and organizational psychology Shaping the University of the Future Stephen James Marshall,2018-01-02

This book focuses on developing an understanding of the complex interplay of forces acting on individual universities and higher education systems to enable leaders and practitioners to take purposeful and strategic action It explores the challenging landscape of higher education and the pressures that are reshaping the university as a societal institution describing the complex interplay of technological sociological political and economic forces driving change The issues analysed are global in scope reflecting the diversity of contexts but also the common nature of the challenges facing institutions individually and collectively The analysis draws on the lessons learnt and evidence from over fifty organisational case studies undertaken by the author over the past decade exploring organisational change in higher education institutions in New Zealand Australia the United States and the United Kingdom and on his engagement as president of the ACODE organisation with colleagues responsible for learning technological change in Australasia The book helps institutions respond to technological change purposefully in ways that build upon a clear understanding of the complex nature of the existing institution its students and the organisational context Globalizing Management Education Parameswar Nayak,Ram

Kumar Mishra,2011-04-02 This book is a compendium of 32 papers selected through double blind review out of the papers presented for the international conference on Globalizing Management Education Issues and Challenges for Industry and Academia jointly organized by I T S Institute of Management Greater Noida India and Institute of Public Enterprise Hyderabad India at India Habitat Centre New Delhi on February 5 6 2011 While some papers are based on empirical studies others are conceptual and case based The papers focus mainly on five broad thematic areas i understanding global management education ii issues and challenges for management education iii role of regulators in management education iv role of private and government institutions in management education and v role of industry in management education The book conveys a clear message that management education has to go the global way in order to grow and survive in the globalized world It must integrate itself with global culture global polity and global socio economic dynamics in order to face the challenges posed by globali zation It suggests many strategic means such as development of global faculty integrative curricula and pedagogy collaborative research industry academia partnership for making management education socially relevant and globally acceptable Laws of Inheritance Elizabeth Brodersen,2015-08-14 Instilled in interdisciplinary cross cultural perspectives of mythical socio economic literary pedagogic and psychoanalytic representations two archetypal creative inheritance laws interact as twins Eros fusion containment safety and Thanatos division separation risk Hypothesising these twin laws as matrilineal Eros and patrilineal Thanatos this book explores why cross cultural forms including gender traits are not fixed but are instead influenced by earlier flexible matrilineal forms Through a study of twins on macro and micro levels Elizabeth Brodersen argues that a psychological twin dilemma is implicit in inheritance laws and offers a unique forum to show how each law competes for primacy as the first and other Chapters begin by looking at twins in creation myths and the historical background to the laws of inheritance as well as literary representations The book then moves on to the developmental structures imbued in twin research and educational systems to explore how past cultural forms have been re defined to fit a modern landscape and the subsequent movement away from the importance of patrilineal primogeniture Laws of Inheritance will be of key value to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of psychoanalysis psychotherapy archetypal theory cross cultural depth psychology cultural anthropology sociology gender studies and twin research The book will also be of interest to practicing psychoanalysts and psychotherapists

Leadership Across Boundaries Nathan Harter, 2020-11-29 Leadership Across Boundaries A Passage to Aporia theorizes on leadership in an unprecedented manner by stepping outside of conventional leadership theory and importing into leadership studies the implications of certain innovations in the social sciences such as pluralism complexity theory and the dialogical turn to change the way scholars discuss and study leadership Leadership Across Boundaries anchors theoretical passages that generate a new way of imagining what it means to lead and follow with concrete examples about Martin Luther the Common Law dialogue as a practice a painting by Diego Velazquez synchronized fireflies and the strange career of Francis of Assisi This book acknowledges the limitations of existing leadership research as being too leader centric simplistic static and in many cases oblivious to the power of images to shape our understanding To rectify these limitations Leadership Across Boundaries examines alternative images of leadership grounded in concrete examples that present leadership in an unprecedented light The book includes a discussion of invigorating ideas of homeward leadership looking backward extra ordinary leadership going forward and what will be defined as the perennial need for aikido politics An interdisciplinary text Leadership Across Boundaries A Passage to Aporia will appeal not only to scholars instructors and students of leadership but also to those in the many fields in which leadership theory applies such as history economics sociology archetypal psychology the law political philosophy applied mathematics and the martial arts Internet Research Annual Mia Consalvo, Nancy Baym, Jeremy Hunsinger, Klaus Bruhn Jensen, 2004 Internet Research Annual offers a selection of the best work presented at the first three conferences of the Association of Internet Researchers and provides a useful overview of the cutting edge in Internet studies Established scholars and new researchers address issues such as communities on off line the Internet as a methodological tool and space for research and the places politics and policies of
