genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included Henriette Delille Elsie B. Martinez, Colette H. Stelly, 2010-05-24 Beginning in 1812 this fictional biography follows the life of Henriette Delille a free woman of color who founded the Sisters of the Holy Family This examination recounts her spiritual journey and struggle to break free from French Quarter society despite her family's protests Instead she chose to focus on the needs of the less fortunate teaching such principles as chastity and obedience until her death in 1862 Today the Catholic Church is considering the Venerable Henriette Delille for sainthood making her the first African American in North America to receive such an honor Her story provides a glimpse of what life was like in the French Quarter during the nineteenth century and offers enlightenment on voodoo traditions and the pla age system Henriette Delille Cyprian Davis, 2004 Henriette Delille: Servant of Slaves William Kelley, 2017-04 Based on the life of Henriette Delille a 19th century free woman of color who co founded a New Orleans based order of African American nuns this historic novel is a testimony to how each of us has the power to transform the world Creole New Orleans in the Revolutionary Atlantic, 1775-1877 Caryn Cossé Bell, 2023-10-04 Nowhere in the United States did the Age of Democratic Revolution exert as profound an influence as in New Orleans In 1809 10 refugees of the Haitian Revolution doubled the size of the city In 1811 hundreds of Saint Dominguan African and Louisianan plantation workers marched downriver toward the city in the nation's largest ever slave revolt Itinerant revolutionaries from throughout the Atlantic congregated in New Orleans in the cause of Latin American independence Together with the refugee soldiers of the Haitian Revolution both Black and white their presence proved decisive in the Battle of New Orleans After defeating the British the soldiers rejoined the struggle against Spanish imperialism In Creole New Orleans in the Revolutionary Atlantic 1775-1877 Caryn Cossé Bell sets forth these momentous events and much more to document the revolutionary era's impact on the city Bell's study begins with the 1883 memoir of H l ne d Aquin Allain a French Creole and descendant of the refugee community who grew up in antebellum New Orleans Allain's d Aquin forebears fought alongside the Savarys a politically influential free family of color in the Haitian Revolution Forced from Saint Domingue Haiti the allied families retreated to New Orleans Bell's reconstruction of the d Aquin family network interracial alliances and business partnerships provides a productive framework for exploring the city's presence at the crossroads of the revolutionary Atlantic Residing in New Orleans in the heyday of French Romanticism Allain experienced a cultural revolution that exerted an enormous influence on religious beliefs literature politics and even as Bell documents the practice of medicine in the city In France the highly politicized nature of the movement culminated in the 1848 French Revolution with its abolition of slavery and enfranchisement of freed men and women During the Civil War and Reconstruction the Afro Creole leaders of the diasporic community pointed to events in France and stood in the forefront of the struggle to revolutionize race relations in their own nation As Bell demonstrates their cultural and political legacy remains a formidable presence in twenty first century New Orleans Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood Michael R. Heinlein, Editor, 2020-12-15 The Church in the United States is greatly blessed by the contributions of Black Catholics and the legacy of holiness of so many men and women of color. These men and women lived lives that are worthy of our study and emulation. In Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood, Michael R. Heinlein provides the first book to explore the lives of the six Black Catholics from the United States whose causes are under formal consideration by the Catholic Church for canonization. Including biographies and personal reflections from diverse contributors, this book shows how these six men and women provide a model of holiness for all Catholics and people of good will. Venerable Pierre Toussaint, Venerable Henriette Delille, Venerable Father Augustus Tolton, Servant of God Mother Mary Lange, Servant of God Julia Greeley, and Servant of God Sister Thea Bowman are sources of inspiration for us all. As we continue to pray for the advancement of their causes for canonization, all Catholics of every race can learn a great deal from these holy men and women. By their stories of faith and virtue, they show us how to respond to the call to holiness, bringing healing, reconciliation, and peace to our wounded nation and world. It is my profound honor to add my voice in support of Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood. This book gives an insightful look at the Black Americans that are on the path to canonized sainthood in the Catholic Church. The book introduces readers to six Black Americans who dealt in their lifetimes with the human denigration and suffering that is manifested by America's Original Sin of racism. Yet they not only persevered but truly lived as Christian people, which so many Americans claim to be but whose actions do not support that claim. These Black Americans sought to show love, compassion, and forgiveness to all people regardless of their race, ethnicity, or station in life. All of the men and women you will meet in Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood through their faith in God and by giving of themselves to God's people, their sisters and brothers, did what Servant of God Sister Thea Bowman said we must return: love, no matter what. These men and women show us the way forward. Most Reverend Roy E. Campbell Jr., Auxiliary Bishop of Washington, President of the National Black Catholic Congress, Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood is an inspiring look at six holy Black men and women who mirrored Christ in service to others. All of them persevered despite the many rejections they encountered, giving Black Catholics today the inspiration to meet the obstacles of racial inequity with equal grace and love and providing insight to all Catholics regardless of race into the effects of systemic racism and the many gifts and talents people of color bring to the Church. The accompanying reflections written by Catholic laity and religious provide deeper insight into the lives of the six candidates for canonization and how best we can learn from them and emulate their examples in our own lives. The National Black Catholic Congress, Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood is a great expose on the lives and faith of some of our Black ancestors who responded with both prayer and action to overcome racism. Discovering through this book their life stories, their suffering, and their faith-filled response, one is inspired to seek the conversion of hearts with regard to racism through prayer and action so that we too can aspire to be saints by the manner in which we love one another. Most Reverend Shelton J. Fabre, Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux, Chairman of the USCCB Ad Hoc Committee Against Racism, Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood provides a glimpse into the power of God's grace at work in the lives of men and women who were often treated with disdain. The Archdiocese of Denver has been blessed by the heroic charitable witness of Julia Greeley on our streets, in our churches and in our homes. This book extends that blessing to all who are seeking additional examples of courage, perseverance and determination. As our country and Church work to address racism, may we turn to these holy men and women for their example and intercession. Most Reverend Samuel J. Aquila, Archbishop of Denver, Michael Heinlein performs a great service in bringing together engaging reflections on and portraits of Black Catholics who are on the road to sainthood. Their stories differ, but they have at least one thing in common: They rose above the racism of their day to the heights of holiness. From their place in eternity, they challenge us to root out racism from our midst. This volume should prompt us to pray and work for the canonization of these worthy witnesses to the Lord's truth and love. Most Reverend William E. Lori, Archdiocese of Baltimore. The last three Bishops of Rome have called Christ's Church to a New Evangelization, a renewal of the mandate given at Pentecost to carry on the mission of the Redeemer. Heinlein's book offers us a glimpse of a central theme of our renewal: personal witness, the heart of it, seen in the cloud of witness of these holy ones. These men and women of color lived their faith, life and became living gospels of the Gift, the Passion of the Cross, seen in the evil of racism, the Liberation of the Resurrection, recognized in the courage of the prophets and the songs of the Kingdom, heard and shared in the joy of the Spirit. They call us to witness. Most Reverend David P. Talley, Bishop of Memphis. Can anything good come from Nazareth? Was Nathaniel's response in John's gospel to Philip's invitation to meet Jesus. Philip's words in reply echo down the centuries: Come and see. John 1:45-46. Within this book is a cohort of six awe-inspiring disciples who encountered the Lord and proved that when grasped by Jesus Christ, God can raise up goodness from anywhere. As former slaves and descendants of chattel slavery, they bore fruit a hundred fold in their time and place and bequeathed to the Church a lasting legacy. I invite all who yearn for racial justice and peace to come and see in this book six black women and men who show us the path to life in this world as they continue on the road to sainthood. Most Reverend Joseph Kopacz, Bishop of Jackson. Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood gives us an opportunity to become better acquainted with six black women and men from the United States and to be inspired by their lives of faith. As we strive for holiness, we are given the privilege to learn more about their journey to canonization and to participate in their process. Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond, Archbishop of New Orleans. Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood is essential reading for all Catholics, particularly at this time in our country's history. There is a common thread in the stories of these six holy men and women: a strong faith, love for others and personal sacrifice. I appreciate OSV raising awareness of the lives of these candidates for sainthood. It is my hope that reading about their lives and struggles will inspire not just devotion, but others to follow in their footsteps. The world desperately needs models of holiness and virtue like the ones contained in this short volume. May their testimony of faith help us bring healing and reconciliation to a divided world and inspire us to respond to our own call to holiness. Most Reverend Nelson J. Perez.
