Questions of Consciousness Anthony P. Cohen, Nigel Rapport, 2003-12-16 A pioneering attempt to formulate an anthropological approach to consciousness Questions of Consciousness explores the importance of the conscious self and of the conscious collectively in the construction and interpretation of social relations and process It thereby explicitly raises questions the answers to which have previously been neglected in anthropology how aware are people of their behaviour To what extent is the consciousness of individuals modelled by the cultures and social structures within which they live The Therapy Industry Paul Moloney, 2013-06-07 Across the world anxiety stress and depression are on the increase a trend which looks set to continue as austerity measures bite The official response tells people that unhappiness is just a personal problem rather than a social one Written by a practising psychologist with nearly thirty years experience in the fields of mental health and learning disabilities The Therapy Industry offers a concise accessible and critical overview of the world of psychological practice in Britain and the USA Paul Moloney argues that much therapy is geared towards compliance and acceptance of the status quo rather than attempting to facilitate social change The Therapy Industry fundamentally challenges our conceptions of happiness and wellbeing Moloney argues that therapeutic and applied psychology have little basis in science that their benefits are highly exaggerated and they prosper because they serve the interests of power
