Long Slow Burn Sexuality And Social Science:

Long Slow Burn Kath Weston, 2013 Kath Weston's powerful collection of essays Long Slow Burn challenges the preconception that queer studies is the brainchild of the humanities and argues that social science has been talking about sex all along To deny this one would have to overlook Kinsey's pioneering sex research in the 1950s or the psychiatrist Evelyn Hooker's pathbreaking study of homosexuality but also in the sex talk that lies at the heart of classic debates on kinship inequality cognition and other foundational topics in the social sciences What is different now Weston claims is the way sexuality has been isolated from other contemporary issues Not content with its ghettoization as a contained subfield Weston refuses to draw an artificial line around sexuality

Queering the Countryside Mary L. Gray, Colin R. Johnson, Brian J. Fiesta de diez pesos: Music and Gay Identity in Special Period Cuba Moshe Morad, 2016-04-15 The Special Period in Cuba was an extended era of economic depression starting in the early 1990s characterized by the collapse of revolutionary values and social norms and a way of life conducted by improvised solutions for survival including hustling and sex work During this time there developed a thriving though constantly harassed and destabilized clandestine gay scene known as the ambiente In the course of eight visits between 1995 and 2007 the last dozen years of Fidel Castro's reign Moshe Morad became absorbed in Havana's gay scene where he created a wide social network attended numerous secret gatherings from clandestine parties to religious rituals and observed patterns of behavior and communication He discovered the role of music in this scene as a marker of identity a source of queer codifications and identifications a medium of interaction an outlet for emotion and a way to escape from a reality of scarcity oppression and despair Morad identified and conducted his research in different types of musical space from illegal clandestine parties held in changing locations to ballet halls drag show bars private living rooms and kitchens and santer a religious ceremonies In this important study the first on the subject he argues that music plays a central role in providing the physical emotional and conceptual spaces which constitute this scene and in the formation of a new hybrid gay identity in Special Period Cuba

Why America's Top Pundits Are Wrong Catherine Besteman, Hugh Gusterson, 2005-01-17 In this fresh literate and biting critique of current thinking on some of today's most important and controversial topics leading anthropologists take on some of America's top pundits This absorbing collection of essays subjects such popular commentators as Thomas Friedman Samuel Huntington Robert Kaplan and Dinesh D Souza to cold hard scrutiny and finds that their writing is often misleadingly simplistic culturally ill informed and politically dangerous Mixing critical reflection with insights from their own fieldwork twelve distinguished anthropologists respond by offering fresh perspectives on globalization ethnic violence social justice and the biological roots of behavior They take on such topics as the collapse of Yugoslavia the consumer practices of the American poor American foreign policy in the Balkans and contemporary debates over race welfare and violence against women In the clear vigorous prose of the pundits themselves these contributors reveal the hollowness of what often passes as prevailing wisdom and passionately demonstrate the need for a humanistically complex and democratic understanding of the contemporary world Available November 2004 Pub Date January 2005

Heterosexual Africa? Marc Epprecht, 2008-08-15 Heterosexual Africa The History of an Idea from the Age of Exploration to the Age of AIDS builds from Marc Epprecht's previous book Hungochani which focuses explicitly on same sex desire in southern Africa to explore the historical processes by which a singular heterosexual identity for Africa was constructed by anthropologists ethnopsychologists colonial officials African elites and most recently health care workers seeking to address the HIV AIDS pandemic This is an eloquently written accessible book based on a rich and diverse range of sources that will find enthusiastic audiences in classrooms and in the general public Epprecht argues that Africans just like people all over the world have always had a range of sexualities and sexual identities Over the course of the last two centuries however African societies south of the Sahara have come to be viewed as singularly heterosexual Epprecht carefully traces the many routes by which this singularity this heteronormativity became a dominant culture In telling a fascinating story that will surely generate lively debate Epprecht makes his project speak to a range of literatures queer theory the new imperial history African social history queer and women's studies and biomedical literature on the HIV AIDS pandemic He does this with a light enough hand that his story is not bogged down by endless references to particular debates Heterosexual Africa aims to understand an enduring stereotype about Africa and Africans It asks how Africa came to be defined as a homosexual free zone during the colonial era and how this idea not only survived the transition to independence but flourished under conditions of globalization and early panicky responses to HIV AIDS The Cambridge Handbook for the Anthropology of Gender and Sexuality Cecilia McCallum, Silvia Posocco, Martin Fotta, 2023-10-19 The tense but enduring engagement between anthropology and gender and sexuality studies has had profound effects upon anthropological theory and practice Bringing together contributions from an international team of authors this Handbook shows that anthropological work has taken inspiration from feminist and LGBTQI movements to create a transformative body of research It provides an accessible state of the art overview of the anthropology of gender and sexuality whilst also documenting its historical emergence highlighting the varied impact gender and sexuality studies have had on anthropological theory It is split into five parts with each chapter introducing a contemporary anthropological theory through in depth ethnographical discussion It features intersectional black and indigenous authors providing a forum for established and emerging voices to gesture towards futures of anthropology of gender and sexuality Authoritative and cutting edge it is essential reading for researchers and students in anthropology and will set the agenda for future research in the field
