Narrative Personae and Desire in Modernist Fiction Kevin Ohi, 2025-09-25 Examining modernist fiction in the context of a longer tradition of narrative impersonality Narrative Personae and Desire in Modernist Fiction explores how narrative language renders subjective states of interiority and desire Inspired by linguistic analyses of the speakerless sentences of narrative language and their unoccupied centers of perception Kevin Ohi argues that modernist texts are populated by quasi-persons narrative voices that are impersonal while trailing effects of personality and characters whose personhood is suspended the incisive rendering of psychology and desire produced by externalizations of consciousness Certain first person texts highlight the constitutive tension between the functions of narrator and character joined in that first person while in third person texts a charismatic or impervious central voice can be shown nevertheless to hold the psychologies it empties from the characters it describes At stake is the particular way that modernist narrative responds to the question of literature's capacities for addressing psychic life In Virginia Woolf's Jacob's Room William Faulkner's As I Lay Dying Ford Madox Ford's The Good Soldier Eudora Welty's The Golden Apples Ronald Firbank's Concerning the Eccentricities of Cardinal Pirelli and

James Purdy's Mourners Below this volume finds a paradoxical merger a humanizing effect achieved by narrative depersonalization and its evocations of psychology and desire

Low Level Hell Hugh L. Mills, Jr., 2009-01-16 The aeroscouts of the 1st Infantry Division had three words emblazoned on their unit patch Low Level Hell It was then and continues today as the perfect concise definition of what these intrepid aviators experienced as they ranged the skies of Vietnam from the Cambodian border to the Iron Triangle The Outcasts as they were known flew low and slow aerial eyes of the division in search of the enemy Too often for longevity's sake they found the Viet Cong and the fight was on These young pilots 19-22 years old invented the book as they went along Praise for Low Level Hell An absolutely splendid and engrossing book The most compelling part is the accounts of his many air to ground engagements There were moments when I literally held my breath Dr Charles H. Cureton Chief Historian U.S. Army Training and Doctrine TRADOC Command Low Level Hell is the best bird's eye view of the helicopter war in Vietnam in print today No volume better describes the feelings from the cockpit Mills has captured the realities of a select group of aviators who shot craps with death on every mission R.
