Philosophy Begins in Wonder Michael Funk Deckard,Péter Losonczi,2010-01-01 Philosophy begins with wonder according to Plato and Aristotle Yet Plato and Aristotle did not expand a great deal on what precisely wonder is Does this fact alone not raise curiosity in us as to why this passion or concept is important What is wonder s role in science philosophy or theology except to end thinking or theorizing as soon as one begins The primary purpose of this book is to show how seventeenth and eighteenth century developments in natural theology metaphysics epistemology ethics aesthetics and the philosophy of science resulted in a complex history of the passion of wonder a history in which the elements of continuation criticism and reformulation are equally present Philosophy Begins in Wonder provides the first historical overview of wonder and changes the way we see early modern Europe It is intended for readers who are curious who wonder about how modern philosophy and science were born The book is for scholars and educated readers alike

Spanish Women Travelers at Home and Abroad, 1850-1920 Jennifer Jenkins Wood, 2013-12-12 Between 1850 and 1920 women's travel and travel writing underwent an explosion It was an exciting period in the history of travel a golden age While transportation had improved mass tourism had not yet robbed journeys of their aura of adventure Although British women were at the forefront of this movement a number of intrepid Spanish women also participated in this new era of travel and travel writing They transcended general societal limitations imposed on Spanish women at a time when the refrain la mujer en casa y con la pata quebrada described most of their female compatriots who suffered from legal constraints lack of education a husband's dictates or little or no money of their own Spanish Women Travelers at Home and Abroad 1850-1920 From Tierra del Fuego to the Land of the Midnight Sun analyzes the travels and the travel writings of eleven extraordinary women Emilia Pardo Bazán Carmen de Burgos pseud Colombina Rosario de Acuña Carolina Coronado Emilia Serrano Baronesa de Wilson Eva Canel Cecilia Bhl de Faber pseud Fernán Caballero Princesses Paz and Eulalia de Borbón Sofía Casanova and Mother María de Jesús Gell These Spanish women travelers climbed mountain peaks in their native country traveled by horseback in the Amazon observed the Indians of Tierra del Fuego suffered from el soroche altitude sickness in the Andes admired the midnight sun in Norway traveled to mission fields in sub-Saharan Africa and reported on wars in Europe and North Africa to mention only a few of their accomplishments The goal of this study is to acquaint English speaking readers with the narratives of these remarkable women whose works are not available in translation Besides analyzing their travel narratives and the role of travel in their lives Spanish Women Travelers includes many long excerpts translated into English for the first time

Partners in Wonder Eric Leif Davin, 2005-12-07 Partners in

Wonder revolutionizes our knowledge of women and early science fiction. Contrary to accepted interpretations, women fans and writers were a welcome and influential part of pulp science fiction from the birth of the genre. Davin finds that at least 203 female authors under their own female names published over a thousand stories in science fiction magazines between 1926 and 1965. This work explores the distinctly different form of science fiction that females produced, one that was both more utopian and more empathetic than that of their male counterparts. Partners in Wonder presents for the first time a complete bibliography of every story published by women writers in science fiction magazines from 1926 to 1965 and brief biographies on 133 of these women writers. It is thus the most comprehensive source of information on early women science fiction writers yet available and of great importance to scholars of women's studies, popular culture, and English literature as well as science fiction. Continent, 1914. Teaching Compassion: Humane Education in Early Childhood Mary Renck Jalongo, 2013-07-23. In response to highly publicized incidents of school violence, educators across the United States and in many other nations are seeking effective ways to prevent and modify aggressive and anti-social behaviors in students. One of the major recommendations of the research is that efforts to prevent cruelty need to begin early during the early childhood years of birth through age eight. The focus of Teaching Compassion: Humane Education in Early Childhood is guiding young children to accept responsibility for and to be kind in their interactions with fellow human beings, animals, and the environment. Although humane education is a relatively new concept in the field of early childhood education, professionals in the field are very familiar with many of the related concepts, including promoting positive interpersonal interactions, teaching children the skills of self-regulation, giving children experience in caring for living things, and protecting the environment. This edited volume is an interdisciplinary compendium of professional wisdom gathered from experts in the fields of education, child development, science, psychology, sociology, and humane organizations. As the book amply documents, the concept of humane education is powerful, integrative, timely, and appropriate in work with young children. Teaching Compassion: Humane Education in Early Childhood shows how it is possible for adults dedicated to the care and education of young children to balance attention to the cognitive and affective realms and, in so doing, to elevate the overall quality of early childhood programs for children, families, and communities. Wonders of the Wilds Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-10.
