Loot And Other Stories:

Loot Nadine Gordimer, 2004-09-20 The new collection of stories from the South African Nobel laureate Loot and Other Stories Nadine Gordimer, 2004-08-31 With her characteristic brilliance Nobel Prize winner Nadine Gordimer follows the inner lives of characters confronted by unforeseen circumstances An earthquake offers tragedy and opportunity in the title story exposing both an ocean bed strewn with treasure and the avarice of the town's survivors Mission Statement is the story of a bureaucrat's idealism the ghosts of colonial history and a love affair with a government minister that ends astoundingly And in Karma Gordimer's inventiveness knows no bounds in five returns to earthly life a disembodied narrator taking on different ages and genders testifies to unfinished business and questions the nature of existence Revelatory and powerful these are stories that challenge our deepest convictions even as they dazzle us with their artful lyricism The Short Story after Apartheid Graham K. Riach, 2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid's end By focusing on the short story this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature the aesthetics of engaged writing the politics of the past class and race the legacies of violence and the struggle over the land Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavi Zo Wicomb Phaswane Mpe and Henrietta Rose Innes this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought Jump and Other Stories Nadine Gordimer, 2007-05-15 Fifteen thematically and geographically wide ranging stories from the Nobel Prize Winner with settings ranging from suburban London to Mozambique The Loot of Cities and Other Stories Arnold Bennett, 1917 The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfe and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920-2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies
