Grand Council of Minnesota,1871 The Melodrama of Mobility Nancy Abelmann,2003-09-30 How do people make sense of their world in the face of the breakneck speed of contemporary social change Through the lives and narratives of eight women The Melodrama of Mobility chronicles South Korea s experience of just such dizzyingly rapid development Abelmann captures the mood feeling and language of a generation and an era while providing a rare window on the personal and social struggles of South Korean modernity Drawing also from television soap operas and films she argues that a melodramatic sensibility speaks to South Korea s transformation because it preserves the tension and ambivalence of daily life in unsettled times The melodramatic mode helps people to wonder Can individuals be blamed for their social fates How should we live Who can say who is good or bad By combining the ethnographic tools of anthropology an engagement with prevailing sociological questions and a literary approach to personal narratives The Melodrama of Mobility offers a rich portrait of the experience of compressed modernity in the non West While the Bridegroom is with them Marianne Blickenstaff,2005-06-09 Interpreters of Matthew s Parable of the Wedding Feast 22 1 14 typically associate the king with God and then justify his violent attacks against city and guests interpreters of the Parable of the Ten Virgins 25 1 13 typically associate the bridegroom with Jesus and then justify his extreme rejection of the foolish virgins Questioning such allegorical interpretations this study first details how Hebrew Greek and Roman texts depict without requiring allegorical understandings numerous bridegrooms associated not only with joy but also with violence and death Second this project appeals to the disruptive nature of parables the feminist technique of resisting reading and the Matthean Jesus s own ethical instructions to argue that in the parables those who resist violent rulers and uncaring bridegrooms are the ones worthy of the Kingdom The study then shows how the Matthean Jesus the brideless celibate bridegroom creates a fictive family by disrupting biological and marital ties redefining masculinity and undermining the
