Every branch of knowledge, all disciplines that exist, is manifested in the teacher role, be it at the elementary, middle, or high school. A teacher is a disciplinarian, a psychologist, a psychiatrist, a nurse, a surrogate parent, a coach, a cheerleader, and an advocate, to mention a few. Never before, as in present day, has the teacher role been placed in a position to deal with issues far removed from the actual role of imparting knowledge. Reinventing Ourselves as Teachers Claudia Mitchell, Sandra Weber, 2003-10-04. Designed for use by teachers and teacher educators, this text should help both novice and experienced teachers reinterpret their working lives. The reader is led on a path of personal exploration that goes beyond standard approaches and leads from the personal to the critical. Illustrative material is drawn from all levels, from kindergarten to high school, to illuminate issues and questions fundamental to teachers' lives. Film and literary narratives supply further case studies and contribute to the fusion of critical reflection and everyday realities that typically inform teachers' experiences of work. School Library Journal, 2004. The New Teacher's Complete Sourcebook Bonnie P.
