The Colonial Wars in Contemporary Portuguese Fiction Isabel Moutinho, 2008 The Portuguese fiction that awakened public debate on imperialism The colonial wars in Angola Mozambique and Guinea Bissau in the 1960s and 1970s were Portugal's Vietnam The novels discussed in this study written by António Lobo Antunes Lídia Jorge and Manuel Alegre among others aroused passionate responses from the reading public and initiated a national debate otherwise lacking in the contemporary press with their systematic deconstruction of the rhetoric of patriotism and colonialism of António Salazar's regime The author's approach is of necessity grounded in postcolonial thought as these works represent the awakening of a post imperial conscience in Portuguese literature and society ISABEL MOUTINHO is a Lecturer in Spanish and Portuguese at La Trobe University Australia

Commemorating War Graham Dawson, 2017-07-12 War memory and commemoration have had increasingly high profiles in public and academic debates in recent years This volume examines some of the social changes that have led to this development among them the passing of the two world wars from survivor into cultural memory Focusing on the politics of war memory and commemoration the book illuminates the struggle to install particular memories at the center of a cultural world and offers an extensive argument about how the politics of commemoration practices should be understood Commemorating War analyzes a range of forms of remembrance from public commemorations orchestrated by nation states to personal testimonies of war survivors and from cultural memories of war represented in films plays and novels to investigations of wartime atrocities in courts of human rights It presents a wide range of international case studies encompassing lesser known national histories and wars beyond the well trodden terrain of Vietnam and the two world wars in Europe Emerging from this book is an important critique of both state centered approaches to war memory and those that regard commemoration primarily as a human response to loss and grief Offering a wealth of empirical research material this book will be important for cultural and oral historians sociologists researchers in international relations and human rights and anybody with an interest in the cultural construction of memory in contemporary society

The Murmuring Coast Lídia Jorge,1995 This captivating tale is told in two parts The first presents Lidia Jorge s version of a traditional story about a series of supposed incidents set in Beira Mozambique The events take place in the final years of Portugal s colonial African wars as an undisclosed narrator describes the military wedding of a young Portuguese ensign and an equally young bride The wedding is followed by the mass poisoning of hundreds of native Africans and the arrival of a rain of locusts The story ends grimly with the groom s suicide Evita Lopo the unnamed bride from the first part narrates the remainder of the story Twenty years have gone by and she reviews the past and questions the unidentified narrator s rendering of events in the first section Evita s reminiscences destroy the credibility of the earlier story and she supplies the reader with a great deal of information that the author of the previous account had suppressed or to which he or she merely alluded It becomes apparent that betrayal and guilt have motivated all of the characters actions

The Hypercontemporary Novel in Portugal Paulo de Medeiros,Ana Paula Arnaut,2024-01-11 The first volume of critical essays on the contemporary Portuguese novel in English this book theorizes the concept of the hypercontemporary as a way of reading the novel after its postmodern period This inquiry into the notion of the hypercontemporary in its literary and cultural articulations analyzes a varied group of works representative of the most vibrant novels published in Portugal since 2000 The editors introductory chapter theorizes the concept of the hypercontemporary as one way of looking at the novel after its postmodern period especially in its relation to questions of violence memory and performativity These essays show how the Portuguese novel has evolved in the past 25 years and how in their diversity most of these novels exhibit several common traits including new topics and writing strategies sometimes developing further entropic lines characteristic of many Postmodern narratives and themes of violence rapid transformation and the many threats to a contemporary world that seems mass produced due to greater technological advances Readings also discuss the use of innovative graphic forms available from current print technologies and global networks The Hypercontemporary Novel in Portugal provides a necessary understanding of the current literary landscape of Portugal and in the process the aesthetics of hyperrealism or post postmodernism

Africa's Lost Classics Lizelle Bisschoff, 2017-07-05 Until recently the story of African film was marked by a series of truncated histories many outstanding films from earlier decades were virtually inaccessible and thus often excluded from critical accounts However various conservation projects since the turn of the century have now begun to make many of these films available to critics and audiences in a way that was unimaginable just a decade ago In this accessible and lively collection of essays Lizelle Bisschoff and David Murphy draw together the best scholarship on the diverse and fragmented strands of African film history Their volume recovers over 30 lost African classic films from 1920 2010 in order to provide a more complex genealogy and begin to trace new histories of African filmmaking from 1920s Egyptian melodramas through lost gems from apartheid South Africa to neglected works by great Francophone directors the full diversity of African cinema will be revealed

Women in African Cinema Lizelle Bisschoff, Stefanie Van de Peer, 2019-11-14 Women in African Cinema Beyond the Body Politic showcases the very prolific but often marginalised presence of women in African cinema both on the screen and behind the camera This book provides the first in depth and sustained examination of women in African cinema Films by women from different geographical regions are discussed in case studies that are framed by feminist theoretical and historical themes and seen through an anti colonial philosophical political and socio cultural cinematic lens A historical and theoretical introduction provides the context for thematic chapters exploring topics ranging from female identities female friendships women in revolutionary cinema motherhood and daughterhood women's bodies sexuality and spirituality Each chapter serves up a theoretical historical discussion of the chosen theme followed by two in depth case studies that provide contextual and transnational readings of the films as well as outlining production distribution and exhibition contexts This book contributes to the feminist anti racist revision of the canon by placing African women filmmakers squarely at the centre of African film culture Demonstrating the depth and diversity of the feminine or female aesthetic in African cinema this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of African cinema media studies and

African studies      Postcolonial People Christoph Kalter, 2022-05-26 Having built much of their wealth power and identities on imperial expansion how did the Portuguese and by extension Europeans deal with the end of empire Postcolonial People explores the processes and consequences of decolonization through the histories of over half a million Portuguese settlers who returned following the 1974 Carnation Revolution from Angola Mozambique and other parts of Portugal s crumbling empire to their country of origin and citizenship itself undergoing significant upheaval Looking comprehensively at the returnees history and memory for the first time this book contributes to debates about colonial racism and its afterlives It studies migration refugeeness and integration to expose an apparent paradox The end of empire and the return migrations it triggered belong to a global history of the twentieth century and are shaped by transnational dynamics However they have done nothing to dethrone the primacy of the nation state If anything they have reinforced it      Portugal's Global Cinema

Mariana Liz, 2017-11-30 Portuguese cinema has become increasingly prominent on the international film festival circuit proving the country s size belies its cultural impact From the prestige of directors Manoel de Oliveira Pedro Costa and Miguel Gomes to box office hit La Cage Doree aspects of Portuguese national cinema are widely visible although the output is comparatively small compared to European players like the UK Germany and France Considering this strange discrepancy prompts the question how can Portuguese cinema be characterised and thought about in a global context Accumulating expertise from an international group of scholars this book investigates the shifting significance of the nation Europe and the globe for the way in which Portuguese film is managed on the international stage Chapters argue that film industry professionals and artisans must navigate complex globalised systems that inform their filmmaking decisions Expectations from multi cultural audiences as well as demands from business investors and the criteria for critical accolades put pressure on Portuguese cinema to negotiate for example how far to retain national identities on screen and how to interact with popular and art film tropes and labels Exploring themes typical of Portuguese visual culture including social exclusion and unemployment issues of realism and authenticity and addressing Portugal s postcolonial status this book is a valuable study of interest to the ever growing number of scholars looking outside the usual canons of European cinema and those researching the ongoing implications of national cinema s global networks      Global Impact of the Portuguese

Language Asela de Laguna, 2018-01-16 Within the cultural and literary context of contemporary Portugal and Western literature 1998 was unquestionably the year that Portuguese writing gained international recognition as JosU Saramago became the first Portuguese writer ever to receive the Nobel Prize in literature Readers who had never thought about Portuguese letters began to consume his books and most importantly opted for expanding their reading lists to include other important writers not only from Portugal but from Portuguese speaking well beyond the borders of Portugal Global Impact of the Portuguese Language is a collection of Portuguese writing that is as rich in content and broad in scope as the diversity of its topics and writing modes of its contributors The book is divided into three major parts Part 1 Different Cultural

Perspectives of Portuguese Writing contains thirteen chapters in which the first and opening one Portugal The New Frontier ably sets the stage for the book by examining from a cultural perspective how Portugal a peripheral country in the new world system serves as a microcosm of the problems of cultural intercommunication in today s world Subsequent chapters are grouped in three categories The Voices of the Writers Critical Approaches to Cames and Fictionalizing the Nation Part 2 Portuguese Language and Literature Outside Portugal comprises one section devoted to the Portuguese language in Africa followed by studies about Portuguese discoveries as part of the historical process of remembering and forging one s identity and finally a comprehensive historical development of Portuguese writing both in Portuguese and English in the United States Part 3 Portuguese Literature and Criticism Available in English Suggested Readings details the recent literary happenings which point to a possible renaissance in Portuguese literary production The concluding part of this volume offers a short comprehensive listing of anthologies general studies and the most popular translations of the best of Portuguese writing from Portugal and Africa This lively volume constitutes a first pioneering effort to contribute to a deepening appreciation and understanding of Portuguese writing Anyone interested in ethnic writing will find this book an invaluable education resource with which to begin an exploration of Portuguese writing in the United States Asela Rodriguez de Laguna is associate professor of Spanish and director of the Hispanic Civilization Language Studies Program She is the author of Notes on Puerto Rican Literature Images and Identities An Introduction and editor of Images and Identities The Puerto Rican in Two World Contexts

Women's Cinema in Contemporary Portugal Mariana Liz, Hilary Owen, 2020-03-05 Women s Cinema in Contemporary Portugal brings together scholars from Portugal UK and the USA to discuss 14 women film directors in Portugal focussing on their production in both feature film and documentary genres over the last half century It charts the specific cinematic visions that these women have brought to the re emergence of Portuguese national cinema in the wake of the 1974 Revolution and African decolonisation and to the growing internationalisation of Portugal s arguably minor or small nation cinema with significant young women directors such as Leonor Teles achieving prominence abroad The history of Portuguese women s cinema only begins systematically after the 1974 revolution and democratisation This collection shows how female auteurs made their mark on Portugal s post revolutionary conceptualisation of a differently national cinema through the ethnographic output of the late 1970s It goes on to explore women s decisively gendered interventions in the cinematic memory practices that opened up around the masculine domain of the Colonial Wars in Africa Feminist political issues such as Portugal s 30 year abortion campaign and LGBT status have become more visible since the 1990s alongside preoccupations with global concerns relating to immigration transit and minority status communities The book also demonstrates how women have contributed to the evolution of soundscapes the genre of essay cinema film s relationship to the archive and the adaptation of the written word The result is a powerful provocative and definitive challenge to the marginalisation of Portuguese female directed film in terms of double minority
