increasingly widespread feature of international affairs as the number of parties involved have grown and regional and global fora have multiplied Cecilia Albin examines the role of considerations of justice and fairness in these negotiations She argues that negotiators do not simply pursue their narrow interests or those of their countries but regularly take principles of justice and fairness into account These principles come into play at an early stage as talks are structured and agendas set in the bargaining process itself and in the implementation of and compliance with agreements The analysis is based on cases in four important areas the environment international trade ethnic conflict the Israeli Palestinian conflict and arms control Drawing on a mass of empirical data including a large number of interviews this book relates the abstract debate over international norms and ethics to the realities of international relations The New Israel Gershon Shafir,2018-02-13 The New Israel

Peacemaking and Liberalization argues that the ongoing Israeli Palestinian peace process will be expedited by increased economic liberalization Israel has undergone dramatic economic change in the 1990s shifting from a strongly protectionist state centered economy to a more international neoliberal one The book maintains that these fundamental changes have in turn transformed Israeli society as a whole resulting in a significant moderation of attitudes toward the Palestinian people and Palestinian nationalism The New Israel contains contributions from both established Israeli sociologists and promising young scholars The New Israel Peacemaking and Liberalization is an insightful commentary on one of the most crucial international issues of our time Index Islamicus ,1996 Palestine and the Palestinians Samih K.

Farsoun,2018-05-04 Palestine and the Palestinians is a sweeping social economic ideological and political history of the Palestinian people from antiquity to the Road Map to Peace This second edition is thoroughly revised and updated including entirely new chapters on the most current issues confronting Palestine today including Palestinians in Israel the Oslo Accords and the Second Intifada Palestinian refugees and the right to return Jerusalem the diplomatic peace process and two state single state solutions Water Matters Franklin M. Fisher,2020-01-16 Water Matters is a book that dispels the myth of economics as the dismal science The book puts a noted microeconomist author Franklin M Fisher in the midst of one of the most intractable clashes of the twentieth century the ongoing Arab Israeli conflict and in particular the conflict over water between Israel the Palestinians and the Jordanians Fisher found himself drawn to an academic challenge how could economics inform the resolution of a dispute over a natural resource desperately needed by people and drawn into a complex and fascinating maze of political and institutional intrigue Along the way Fisher met and worked with a host of people from politics academia bureaucracies many with what seem like larger than life personalities Some of them became his friends The story in Water Matters is told as part memoir and part explication of the technical organizational and institutional challenges an academic economist faced in developing a model aimed at helping guide negotiations to solve an obstinate geopolitical problem It is also a narrative about how negotiation happens along with what works and what does not The technical challenges the author and his colleagues faced are explained in lay terms that will teach many readers and the memoir is a rich narrative of people places travel and culture told from the perspective of an American Jew dropped into a unique situation where he never expected to be and in the company of people he never expected to meet     Transatlantic Perspectives on Security Imperatives Transatlantic Policy Consortium. Annual Colloquium,2007 The third volume of the Transatlantic Public Policy Series contains papers prepared by members of the Transatlantic Policy Consortium TPC representing American and European universities and institutions The 13 contributions focus on the future of NATO the possibilities of transatlantic cooperation in the Middle East problems and the challenges to human security The collection serves as an illustration of the state of the debate on security problems in transatlantic relations at this specific time It will contribute to greater synergies of thinking and studies of global security pursued in American and European institutions
