Securities Regulation Case Mtrls:

Securities Regulation David L. Ratner, Thomas Lee Hazen, 1991 Sealy & Worthington's Cases and Materials in Company Law Len Sealy, Sarah Worthington, 2013-08-15 Sealy Worthington's Cases Materials is well established as one of the foremost casebooks on company law The authors expertise in the subject area ensures that vital case extracts are supplemented by sophisticated commentary and well chosen notes and questions taking into account the most recent developments in this crucial area Cases, Materials and Text on Property Law Sjef van Erp, Bram Akkermans, 2012-07-23 This casebook presents a deep comparative analysis of property law systems in Europe ie the law of immovables movables and claims offering signposts and stepping stones for the reader wishing to explore this fascinating area The subject matter is explained with careful attention given to its history foundations thought patterns underlying principles and basic concepts The casebook focuses on uncovering differences and similarities between Europe's major legal systems French German Dutch and English law are examined while Austrian and Belgian law are also touched upon The book combines excerpts from primary source materials case law and legislation and from doctrine and soft law In doing so it presents a faithful picture of the systems concerned Separate chapters deal with the various types of property rights their creation transfer and destruction with security rights such as mortgages pledges retention of title as well as with harmonising and unifying efforts at the EU and global level Through the functional approach taken by the Ius Commune Casebooks this volume clearly demonstrates that traditional comparative insights no longer hold The law of property used to be regarded as a product of historical developments and political ideology which were considered to be almost set in stone and assumed to render any substantial form of harmonisation or approximation very unlikely Even experienced comparative lawyers considered the divide between common law and civil law to be so deep that no common ground so it was thought could be found However economic integration in particular integration of financial markets and freedom of establishment has led to the integration of particular areas of property law such as mortgage law and enforceable security instruments eg retention of title This pressure towards integration has led comparative lawyers to refocus their interest from contract tort and unjustified enrichment to property law and delve beneath its surface This book reveals that today property law systems are closer to one another than previously assumed that common ground can be found and that differences can be analysed in a new light to enable comparison and further the development of property law in Europe Cases and Materials on Business Entities , Securities Regulation James D. Cox, Robert W. Hillman, Donald C. Langevoort, 2018-07-19 Securities Regulation Cases and Materials Eighth Edition 2018 Supplement Securities Regulation David L. Ratner, Thomas Lee Hazen, 1991 International Business Law: Cases and Materials George D. Cameron III, 2015-08-09 INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS LAW CASES AND MATERIALS is a timely and useful book Uncounted millions of international transactions occur daily as goods and services are purchased across the national boundaries of some 200 political units Capital flows from nation to nation and so to a lesser extent do jobs as companies seek more favorable locations for their business operations. The rules laws governing these exchanges quickly become complex as persons and governments from different countries are involved. If problems arise in a cross border relationship whose rules apply? What forums are available to resolve disputes? Are there tax implications to the transaction? If so where? These and similar questions need to be factored into the decision to go overseas. Each of the six chapters in this book begins with a brief overview of the subject matter followed by short previews of the chosen case examples. The primary content of the chapters consists of some 120 court and arbitration decisions in real disputes between real parties. The actual text of the decisions in these cases has been edited: some excerpts are quite brief, others are more substantial. Most background facts have been summarized by the author but the edited decision part of each case is quoted from the actual recorded text of the court or arbitrator who decided it. Clearly a minute sample from tens of thousands of cases cannot provide comprehensive coverage of what all the world's legal rules are. Our objectives here are simply to indicate some of the major potential flash points of doing international business to illustrate some of the significant differences in the applicable legal rules and to provide an exposure to the language and process by which international business disputes are resolved. Forewarned is forearmed. Being aware of these potential trouble spots a sensible business manager will presumably consider them in making the decision to engage in cross border transactions and take appropriate steps to avoid or minimize potential adverse consequences. Chapter I of this book introduces International Law, its course of development and its two major sources: custom and treaties. Chapter II examines the use of national and international courts and arbitrators to resolve cross border disputes. Chapter III provides basic coverage of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods when it applies: how the sale contract is formed when risk of loss on the goods passes from Seller to Buyer and what responsibilities the Seller has for the quality of the goods sold. Chapter IV looks at some of the legal questions that might arise in conducting cross border commercial operations: employment issues, intellectual property issues and investment issues. Chapter V considers potential questions regarding taxation of international activities and the regulation of adverse environmental effects. Chapter VI reviews the efforts by national governments to apply their competition regulations to international business transactions and the difficulties that private parties might have in attempting to enforce legal claims against governments and their agencies. While these are surely not the only legal issues that might arise in connection with international business, they do constitute a significant set of concerns of which managers need to be aware as they venture into the international stream of commerce.

Cases and Materials for Introduction to the Study of Law Cornell Law School, 1950 Cases, Materials and Text on Contract Law Hugh Beale, Bénédicte Fauvarque-Cosson, Jacobien Rutgers, Stefan Vogenauer, 2019-02-28 This is the third edition of the widely acclaimed and successful casebook on contract in the Ius Commune series developed to be used throughout Europe and beyond by anyone who teaches, learns or practises law with a comparative or European perspective. The book contains leading cases, legislation and other materials from English, French and German law as the main representatives of the legal traditions within Europe as well as EU legislation and case law and extracts from the Principles of European Contract Law. Comparisons are also made to other international restatements such as the Vienna Sales Convention, the UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts, the Draft Common Frame of Reference and so on. Materials are chosen and ordered so as to foster comparative study complemented with annotations and comparative overviews prepared by a multinational team. The third edition includes many new developments at the EU level including the ill-fated proposal for a Common European Sales Law and further developments linked to the digital single market and in national laws in particular the major reform of the French Code civil in 2016 and 2018, the UK's Consumer Rights Act 2015 and new cases. The principal subjects covered in this book include: An overview of EU legislation and of soft law principles and their interrelation with national law. The distinctions between contract and property, tort and restitution. Formation and pre-contractual liability. Validity including duties of disclosure. Interpretation and contents, performance and non-performance. Remedies. Supervening events. Third parties.

Patent Law: Cases, Problems, and Materials (4th Edition 2025) Jonathan S. Masur, Lisa Larrimore Ouellette, 2025-07-01 Patent Law: Cases, Problems, and Materials 4th Edition 2025 is a free casebook co-authored by Professor Jonathan S. Masur, University of Chicago Law School and Professor Lisa Larrimore Ouellette, Stanford Law School. The casebook is focused on bringing conceptual clarity to the details of modern patent practice while also placing patent law in its social context. Many practice problems throughout the casebook allow students to apply patent doctrines to fact patterns from real cases and to hypotheticals constructed to isolate and explain difficult concepts. So far, it has been adopted at over 70 law schools. The casebook is made available under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial NoDerivatives 4.0 International License.
