Claiming Sacred Ground Adrian J. Ivakhiv, 2001-07-26 Claiming Sacred Ground Pilgrims and Politics at Glastonbury and Sedona Adrian J Ivakhiv A study of people and politics at two New Age spiritual sites In this richly textured account Adrian Ivakhiv focuses on the activities of pilgrim migrants to Glastonbury England and Sedona Arizona He discusses their efforts to encounter and experience the spirit or energy of the land and to mark out its significance by investing it with sacred meanings Their endeavors are presented against a broad canvas of cultural and environmental struggles associated with the incorporation of such geographically marginal places into an expanding global cultural economy Ivakhiv sees these contested and heterotopic landscapes as the nexus of a complex web of interests and longings from millennial anxieties and nostalgic reimaginings of history and prehistory to real estate power grabs contending religious visions and the free play of ideas from science pseudo science and popular culture Looming over all this is the nonhuman life of these landscapes another that alternately reveals and conceals itself behind a pageant of beliefs images and place myths A significant contribution to scholarship on alternative spirituality sacred space and the politics of natural landscapes Claiming Sacred Ground will interest scholars and students of environmental and cultural studies and the sociology of religious movements and pilgrimage Non specialist readers will be stimulated by the cultural ecological and
