Original Instructions Melissa K. Nelson, 2008-01-16 Indigenous leaders and other visionaries suggest solutions to today's global crisis Original Instructions are ancient ways of living from the heart of humanity within the heart of nature Explores the convergence of indigenous and contemporary science and the re-indigenization of the world's peoples Includes authoritative indigenous voices including John Mohawk and Winona LaDuke For millennia the world's indigenous peoples have acted as guardians of the web of life for the next seven generations They've successfully managed complex reciprocal relationships between biological and cultural diversity Awareness of indigenous knowledge is reemerging at the eleventh hour to help avert global ecological and social collapse Indigenous cultural wisdom shows us how to live in peace with the earth and one another Original Instructions evokes the rich indigenous storytelling tradition in this collection of presentations gathered from the annual Bioneers conference It depicts how the world's native leaders and scholars are safeguarding the original instructions reminding us about gratitude kinship and a reverence for community and creation Included are more than 20 contemporary indigenous leaders such as Chief Oren Lyons John Mohawk Winona LaDuke and John Trudell These beautiful wise voices remind us where hope lies American Horticulturist, 1994 The Microscopic and Chemical Parts of Plants Thomas P. Hanna, 1999 The plant's cells and their several specialized working subunits are examined in addition to chemical traits like color scent and the hormonal effects that turn leaves toward the light and allow other adaptations to the surroundings And the major processes driven by chemical changes over time that together are the life cycle of the plant are considered BOOK JACKET Saving More Than Seeds Catherine Phillips, 2016-04-01 Saving More Than Seeds advances understandings of seed people relations with particular focus on seed saving The practice of reusing and exchanging seeds provides foundation for food production and allows humans and seed to adapt together in dynamic socio-natural conditions But the practice and its practitioners are easily taken for granted even as they are threatened by neoliberalisation Combining original ethnographic research with investigation of an evolving corporate seed order this book reveals seed saving not only as it occurs in fields and gardens but also as it associates with genebanking genetic engineering intellectual property rights and agrifood regulations Drawing on diverse social sciences literatures Phillips illustrates ongoing practices of thinking feeling and acting with seeds raising questions about what seed people relations should accomplish and how different ways of relating might be pursued to change collective futures Seed Libraries Cindy Conner, 2015-02-01 Community based initiatives to preserve and protect our food supply Historically seed companies were generally small often family run businesses Because they were regionally based they could focus on varieties well suited to the local environment A Pacific Northwest company for example would specialize in different cultivars than a company based in the Southeast However the absorption of these small independent seed businesses into large multinationals combined with the advancement of biotechnology resulting in hybrids and GMO seeds has led to a serious loss of genetic diversity The public is now at the mercy of the corporations that control the seeds In the past few years gardeners have realized the inherent danger in this situation A growing movement is striving to preserve and expand our stock of heritage and heirloom varieties through seed saving and sharing opportunities Seed Libraries is a practical guide to saving seeds through community programs including Step by step instructions for setting up a seed library A wealth of ideas to help attract patrons and keep the momentum going Profiles of existing libraries and other types of seed saving partnerships Whoever controls the seeds controls the food supply By empowering communities to preserve and protect the genetic diversity of their harvest Seed Libraries is the first step towards reclaiming our self reliance while enhancing food security and ensuring that the future of food is healthy vibrant tasty and nutritious Cindy Conner is a permaculture educator founder of Homeplace Earth and producer of two popular instructional gardening DVDs She is also the author of Grow a Sustainable Diet Edible Heirlooms Bill Thorness,2009-09-14 Features a variety of heirloom vegetables appealing to gourmands and gardeners alike Growing heirloom plants is the ultimate way to eat local Scarlet nantes get a lot more looks than the standard orange carrot Exploring the need for heirloom plants in the twenty first century Edible Heirlooms takes a look at the history and vitality of the heirloom plant from Russian Red Kale to January King Cabbage This informative guide collects 26 edible heirloom plants best suited to gardeners in the maritime West from British Columbia to the San Francisco Bay area and provides information on species variety growing tips plant history and suggested uses Chapters contain instructions on how to save your own seeds and suggestions for starting a seed exchange among friends or a community garden in your neighborhood Special Reference Briefs ,1983 New Age Journal ,1994 Rethinking Home Joseph A. Amato,2002-04-01 Joseph A Amato proposes a bold and innovative approach to writing local history in this imaginative wide ranging and deeply engaging exploration of the meaning of place and home Arguing that people of every place and time deserve a history Amato draws on his background as a European cultural historian and a prolific writer of local history to explore such topics as the history of cleanliness sound anger madness the clandestine and the environment in southwestern Minnesota While dedicated to the unique experiences of a place his lively work demonstrates that contemporary local history provides a vital link for understanding the relation between immediate experience and the metamorphosis of the world at large In an era of encompassing forces and global sensibilities Rethinking Home advocates the power of local history to revivify the individual the concrete and the particular This singular book offers fresh perspectives themes and approaches for energizing local history at a time when the very notion of place is in jeopardy Amato explains how local historians shape their work around objects we can touch and institutions we have directly experienced For them theory always gives way to facts His vivid portraits of individual people places situations and cases which include murders crop scams and taking custody of the law are joined to local illustrations of the use of environmental and ecological history This book also puts local history in the service of contemporary history with the examination of recent demographic social and cultural transformations Critical concluding chapters on politics and literature especially Sinclair Lewis's Main Street and Longfellow's Hiawatha show how metaphor and myth invent, distort and hold captive local towns, peoples and places

The Knowledge Evolution Verna Allee, 2012-06-25

The Knowledge Evolution offers a unique and powerful road map for understanding knowledge creation, learning and performance in everyday work. This book reframes current thinking by delving into the hidden world of knowledge supporting both individual and organizational performance, laying the foundation for the emerging art of knowledge management. Packed with best practices from leading edge companies, essential guidelines, design principles, analogies and conceptual frameworks, it serves as a practical guidebook for mastering the Knowledge Era. It will help managers make more intelligent decisions about knowledge creation, reduce wasteful technology investments and lead to new ease and confidence in applying knowledge and learning principles for themselves and for their organizations. Verna Allee delves into current thinking and practice to unravel the genetic code of knowledge itself. This revolutionary approach has surfaced a simple and elegant knowledge archetype. She demonstrates how this archetype can help us deal with complexity and suggests ways of self-organizing that make profound sense in today's networked enterprises. From strategies for core knowledge competencies to the key components of individual expertise, The Knowledge Evolution zeroes in on the critical success factors for the knowledge-based enterprise. What emerges is an approach to knowledge management that is simple enough to communicate at every level of the organization yet rich enough to encompass all the complexity of modern enterprises. Verna Allee is the founder of Integral Performance Group, a consulting practice in California that specializes in the learning organization, knowledge competencies, organizational systems change, systems thinking, total quality and learning benchmarking, support, best practices, research and strategic development. She holds a degree in the Study of Human Consciousness and her work is informed by a deep interest in intelligence, human development, cognition, intuition and consciousness. She is the author of Learning Links: Enhancing Individual and Team Performance Pfeiffer and Co/Jossey-Bass, 1996 and Orion, 1994.
