The Painter's Eye Maurice Grosser, 1963

Screening Woolf Earl G. Ingersoll, 2016-12-06 As the subtitle indicates this book has three major concerns The first and most important concern is an examination of the film adaptations of Woolf's novels To the Lighthouse Orlando and Mrs Dalloway in the order the films were released This is the heart of the matter a fairly conventional effort to acknowledge film reviews as well as the criticism of academicians in film or literature as a starting point for a fresh view of these three film adaptations Since many film specialists prefer that no film ever be adapted from literary fiction and many literature specialists have similarly wished that their favorite novels had never been filmed the effort to mediate the two sides can be challenging Of the three films To the Lighthouse is the least successful tending toward the old Masterpiece Theater mode of attempting to be faithful to the source text to use the term of the film theorist Robert Stam but missing the essence of the novel Director Sally Potter's Orlando is cinematically the most venturesome and attractive although some Woolf readers condemn Potter's erasure of Woolf's intent to celebrate her affair with Vita Sackville West whose son Nigel Nicolson called Woolf's Orlando the longest and most charming love letter in literature Mrs Dalloway tends toward the Merchant Ivory style of treating literary masterworks indeed the film credits include a debt of gratitude to the producer-director partnership and is generally carried by the star power of Vanessa Redgrave although it is difficult to imagine her having a crush on another young woman even at eighteen The book's second concern is Woolf's interest in what she would call the cinema As a member of Bloomsbury she saw and participated in the discussion of the cinema especially avant garde films which she considered to be more the future of cinema than film adaptations upon which she heaped great scorn for their ravenous if not rapacious consumption of vulnerable literary fiction such as Leo Tolstoy's Anna Karenina. Woolf specialists such as Leslie Hankins proclaim her one of the earliest and most significant British film theorists for the brilliant essay The Cinema 1925 as film was just beginning to establish itself as art and not merely popular entertainment. The third concern is a complex effort to explore the David Hare Stephen Daldry film adaptation of Michael Cunningham's Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Hours an homage to Mrs Dalloway in which Virginia Woolf has a starring role as portrayed by Oscar winner Nicole Kidman. The film and Kidman's prosthetic nose produced a violent division among the Woolfians who either commended its bringing legions of new readers to Mrs Dalloway and potentially to Woolf's Mrs Dalloway becoming the best seller it could not have been in her lifetime or were outraged by the film's diminishment of probably the most important female British novelist of the 20th century. Even Nobel Laureate Doris Lessing spoke out against the travesty of a novelist she considered a foremother of later 20th century writers. Art in Australia, 1921. Through the Eyes of Descartes Cecilia Sjöholm, Marcia Sá Cavalcante Schuback, 2024-02-06. I shall here present my life writes Descartes in Discourse on Method as in a painting and my method as a fable. Through the Eyes of Descartes demonstrates how a Cartesian aesthetics is interwoven in his thought. It brings together a variety of materials his metaphysical writings and essays in natural philosophy through to his letters drawings and printed images. Cecilia Sjöholm and Marcia S Cavalcante Schuback seek to bring Descartes into dialogue with contemporary phenomenology as well as contemporary psychoanalytic thought. They focus on how perception interacts with emotions and thought and the way in which our gaze is directed toward limit phenomena of beauty and fascination. In Through the Eyes of Descartes Cecilia Sjöholm and Marcia S Cavalcante Schuback counter the traditional picture of Descartes by presenting his work in an entirely different light. A Descartes of the arts of sensibility of inner images and of imagination. New Aspects of the Menon Painter Henry Roy William Smith, 1929. Ladies Companion and Literary Expositor, 1839. Includes music. Life with Full Attention Maitreyabandhu, 2012-09-10. In this eight week course on mindfulness Maitreyabandhu gently guides readers teaching them how to pay closer attention to their experience. Each week he introduces a different aspect of mindfulness such as awareness of the body feelings thoughts and the environment and recommends a number of easy practices from trying out a simple meditation to reading a poem. Featuring personal stories examples and tempting suggestions Life with Full Attention provides both a starting point and a great refresher. Nineteenth-Century Gardens and Gardening Sarah Dewis, Brent Elliott, 2024-06-19. This six volume collection brings together primary sources on gardens and gardening across the long nineteenth century. Economic expansion empire the growth of the middle classes and suburbia the changing role of women and the professionalisation of gardening alongside industrialisation and the development of leisure and mass markets were all elements that contributed to and were influenced by the evolution of gardens.
