Hebrews: a Commentary William H. Bicksler, 2005-09-14 This academic commentary on the original languages and NIV and Greek text of Hebrews focuses on the thought beliefs message that are unique to this biblical author without reference to any possible person tradition has considered as the author lest such a reference determine all possible outcomes of this study The various theories of authorship are studied in the Introduction but the message in its entirety is of unusual significance for Christian Jewish thought and relationships and the development of the Christian Jewish church in the first century and today The So called epistle in shell is actually a theological treatise and impassioned sermon to those facing extreme forms of persecution and efforts to coerce denial of the faith These believers are faced with an accepted legal status as Jews in the Roman Empire versus the people of the Way that was viewed as sectarian by the Jews and as an illegal sect by Rome The quick expansion of the church into the Roman world under the emphases and apologetics of Paul combating some opposition to his message both in the Jewish leadership as well as in the Jewish Christian churches The cruciality of holding on to the eternal truths of the past and not compromising the truth in Jesus of Nazareth places this writing front and center to the basic questions of the relationships of church and Judaism The stance of this author is that of mainline Evangelical thought with awareness of the Wesleyan Lutheran Anabaptist and Calvinistic emphases as well as others The issues of text canon and history of interpretation are specialized studies not covered in this commentary A Place to Hide a Place to Seek Thelma Mabry,2014-07-31 Are you going through a personal storm this very minute Did you just come out of a storm that left you battered bruised and weakened Do you have days when it seems like the storms just won't cease If you answered yes to either of these questions you need a place of refuge You need a place to hide to prevent further damage and to heal You also need a place to seek God's guidance and direction for your life We may not be able to prevent the storms from coming into our lives but we can have a place of refuge to prepare us to withstand any level of damage A Place to Hide A Place to Seek is designed to take you on a journey to achieving the power God wants to see working in our lives It is designed to prepare you for whatever level of force any storm may bring The journey begins in the City of Praise We will then travel a short distance to the City of Prayer After we have spent some time on our knees we will journey to the City of Promise The next important city is the City of Peace After we have peace we need the City of Perseverance We must be able to hang in there The next city is the City of Prosperity You have probably been waiting for this city The last city the one we need for God to do exceedingly abundantly in our lives is the City of Power Let the journey begin
