Select Chapters For Fact Value Policy Reading Writing Arguments:

Fact, Value, Policy A. Harris Fairbanks, 1994 Fact Value Policy is a reader rhetoric designed for second semester freshman courses or more advanced courses on argumentation It presents a theory of argument that distinguishes arguments of fact that depend on casual reasoning and arguments of value that depend on analytical reasoning Policy arguments are discussed as a special kind of claim that combines factual and evaluative issues This coherent presentation of theory is coordinated with cross curricular readings Elements of Argument Annette T. Rottenberg, Donna Haisty Winchell, 2011-08-03 Elements of Argument combines a thorough argument text on critical thinking reading writing and research with an extensive reader on both current and timeless controversial issues It presents everything students need to analyze research and write arguments Elements of Argument covers Toulmin Aristotelian and Rogerian models of argument and has been thoroughly updated with current selections students will want to read It now includes additional support for academic writing making it a truly flexible classroom resource An electronic edition is available at half the price of the print book Read the preface The Structure of Argument Annette T. Rottenberg, Donna Haisty Winchell, 2011-08-03 The Structure of Argument covers critical thinking reading writing and research It is concise but thorough and presents everything students need in an affordable compact format The Structure of Argument includes questions exercises and writing assignments and a full semester's worth of readings Now presenting Aristotelian and Rogerian as well as Toulmin argument it includes many fresh readings and additional support for academic writing to help students stake their claim Its emphasis on Toulmin argument makes Structure highly teachable since the approach fits with the goals of the composition course An electronic edition is available at half the price of the print book Reading Literature and Writing Argument Missy James, Alan Merickel, 2005 0 13 189109 X 8910V 1 Missy James Reading Literature and Writing Argument 2e Based on the premise that literature liberates thinking and argument disciplines it This anthology features a critical thinking analytical approach that readers in turn will apply to their own thought and writing processes It introduces and explains the tools of argument and presents reading selections centered on four enduring themes Individuality and Community Nature and Place Family and Identity and Power and Responsibility For those interested in literature composition and argumentative writing

Instructor's Manual Patrick Geary, Patricia O'Brien, Nancy Wood, 2003-09 Speech Communication Workbook Fellina Nwadike, 2002-08 Reading and Writing for Civic Literacy Donald Lazere, 2015-12-03 This brief edition of a groundbreaking textbook addresses the need for college students to develop critical reading writing and thinking skills for self defense in the contentious arena of American civic rhetoric Designed for first year or more advanced composition and critical thinking courses it is one third shorter than the original edition more affordable for students and easier for teachers to cover in a semester or quarter It incorporates up to date new readings and analysis of controversies like the growing inequality of wealth in America and the debates in the 2008 presidential campaign expressed in opposing viewpoints from the political left and right Exercises help students understand the ideological positions and rhetorical patterns that underlie such opposing views Widely debated issues of whether objectivity is possible and whether there is a liberal or conservative bias in news and entertainment media as well as in education itself are foregrounded as topics for rhetorical analysis Mastering
