Children's books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives Postcolonial Readings of Children's Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children's literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream

Macdonald, 2001-11-30 Fictional depictions of Native American concepts of justice crime and the investigation of crime are explored in this original work Shaman or Sherlock explores depictions created by Native American authors themselves as well as those created by outsiders with mainstream agendas The most successful of these writers fuse authentic Native American culture with standard genre conventions thus providing an appealing empathetic view of little understood or underappreciated groups as well as insight into issues of cross cultural communication Dealing with such significant concepts as acculturation regional diversity and assimilation this unique study evaluates over 200 detective stories Though the crime novel began in Europe as a manifestation of Enlightenment rationality and scientific methodology the Native American detective story moves into the realm of the spiritual and intuitive often incorporating depictions of non material phenomena Shaman or Sherlock explores how geographical and tribal differences degrees of assimilation and the evolution of age old cultural patterns shape the Native American detective story Unwonted Spellweavers Benjamin

The Sacred Stones William Sarabande, 1991-09-01 Courageous passionate men and women battle for survival of their clans in the shadow of the great mammoth who speaks with thunder As the massive glaciers fade and the wide seas rise the warm grasslands of the Americas bring prosperity to the gentle People of the Red World followers of the Great Ghost Spirit the White Mammoth But farther north where the harsh dry winds howl another nation the People of the Watching Star are enmeshed with legends of an evil shaman and the man eating monster called the wanawut Relentlessly they have hunted the mammoth to near extinction Now as raiders and ravagers they are coming south to invade the villages of the People of the Red World The only ones who can prevent the murder of innocents and the final slaughter of the mammoth are a young boy shaman to whom the animals speak a man whose strength equals his conviction and a woman who hopes that beyond violence and cruelty humankind will recognize a stronger power the force of love Time Beyond Beginning William Sarabande, 1998-09-01 Dark forces are at work within the realms of earth and sky and a savage new dance of life and death is about to begin the internationally acclaimed saga of the First Americans continues in this long awaited novel from bestseller William Sarabande As the Ice Age draws to a close the men and women living on the northeast coast of the North American continent struggle to adapt to their rapidly changing environment Ancient cultures clash as warriors battle for vital hunting territories When a mammoth is seen in a forest the shaman who is also brother to the headman conjures wondrous and terrifying visions for his imperiled band as he goads them to hunt a beast that may be the last of its kind Although an ancient legend promises death for the People on the day that the last mammoth dies the shaman counters with a legendary promise of his own that those who dare hunt kill and consume the flesh of the mammoth will be made invincible in battle The hunt is successful but the headman is killed and the shaman comes to power and takes possession of his brother s woman and daughter Although he has no suspicion of his uncle s treachery the eldest son of the former headman must live with the fear of the charging mammoth that caused him to feign injury rather than risk his own life to save his father s Now as the last mammoth walks the land a young warrior who has lost nearly everything to his enemies must learn new ways or die in a world where men women and even children dare not be less than heroes The Shaman Laughs James D.
