Shame Of A Nation:

The Shame of the Nation Jonathan Kozol, 2005-09-13 The nation needs to be confronted with the crime that we are committing and the promises we are betraying This is a book about betrayal of the young who have no power to defend themselves It is not intended to make readers comfortable Over the past several years Jonathan Kozol has visited nearly 60 public schools Virtually everywhere he finds that conditions have grown worse for inner city children in the 15 years since federal courts began dismantling the landmark ruling in Brown v Board of Education First a state of nearly absolute apartheid now prevails in thousands of our schools The segregation of black children has reverted to a level that the nation has not seen since 1968 Few of the students in these schools know white children any longer Second a protomilitary form of discipline has now emerged modeled on stick and carrot methods of behavioral control traditionally used in prisons but targeted exclusively at black and Hispanic children And third as high stakes testing takes on pathological and punitive dimensions liberal education in our inner city schools has been increasingly replaced by culturally barren and robotic methods of instruction that would be rejected out of hand by schools that serve the mainstream of society Filled with the passionate voices of children and their teachers and some of the most revered and trusted leaders in the black community The Shame of the Nation is a triumph of firsthand reporting that pays tribute to those undefeated educators who persist against the odds but directly challenges the chilling practices now being forced upon our urban systems by the Bush administration In their place Kozol offers a humane dramatic challenge to our nation to fulfill at last the promise made some 50 years ago to all our youngest citizens From The Shame of the Nation I went to Washington to challenge the soft bigotry of low expectations the president said in his campaign for reelection in September 2004 It s working It s making a difference It is one of those deadly lies which by sheer repetition is at length accepted by large numbers of Americans as perhaps a rough approximation of the truth But it is not the truth and it is not an innocent misstatement of the facts It is a devious appeasement of the heartache of the parents of the poor and if it is not forcefully resisted and denounced it is going to lead our nation even further in a perilous direction Also available as a Random House AudioBook and an eBook Shame Nation Sue Scheff, Melissa Schorr, 2017-10-03 Foreword by Monica Lewinsky and as seen on Dr Oz Smart Timely Essential The era s must read to renew Internet civility Michele Borba ED D author of Unselfie An essential toolkit to help everyone from parents to teenagers to educators take charge of their digital lives Online shame comes in many forms and it s surprising how much of an effect a simple tweet might have on your business love life or school peers A rogue tweet might bring down a CEO an army of trolls can run an individual off line and virtual harassment might cause real psychological damage In Shame Nation parent advocate and internet safety expert Sue Scheff presents an eye opening examination around the rise in online shaming and offers practical advice and tips including Preventing digital disasters Defending your online reputation Building digital resilience Reclaiming online civility Armed with the right knowledge and skills everyone can play a positive part in the prevention and protection against online cruelty and become more courageous and empathetic in their communities Shame Nation holds that elusive key to stopping the trend of online hate so kindness and compassion can prevail Rachel Macy Stafford New York Times bestselling author of Hands Free Mama Hands Free Life and Only Love Today Scheff offers the latest insight as to why people publicly shame each other and will equip readers with the tools to protect themselves from what has now become the new Scarlet Letter Ross Ellis Founder and CEO STOMP Out Bullying THE SHAME OF A NATION. Transitional Justice and the Historical Abuses of Church and State James Gallen,2023-03-30 In this book James Gallen provides an in depth evaluation of the responses of Western States and churches to their historical abuses from a transitional justice perspective Using a comparative lens this book examines the application of transitional justice to address and redress the past in Ireland Australia Canada the United States and United Kingdom It evaluates the use of public inquiries and truth commissions litigation reparations apologies and reconciliation in each context to address these abuses Significantly this novel analysis considers how power and public emotions influence and often impede transitional justice s ability to address historical structural injustices In addressing historical abuses power fails to be redistributed and national and religious myths are not reconsidered leading Gallen to conclude that the existing transitional justice efforts of states and churches remain an unrepentant form of justice This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core Suicide Social Dramas Haim Hazan,Raquel Romberg,2021-07-15 Through an ethnohistorical chronicling of the emotionally laden treatment of selected suicide media events this book offers a neo Durkheimian account of suicide addressing its social moral threat and the ensuing need to gloss over its unsettling incomprehensibility An analysis of the social dramas cultural performances and suicide talk aired in the Israeli public sphere it suggests that such public glossing practices atone for and bring about the symbolic rectification of the socially detrimental effects of suicide Drawing on Durkheim s thought on the social significance of suicide and the sacred cohesive power of society's self representations through rituals and commemorations the authors revamp the contemporary pertinence of these cultural devices showing how in the process of reconstituting and redressing the disrupted order suicide talk constitutes a revival mechanism of communal life giving A rekindling of the Durkheimian approach to suicide that examines how society deals with suicide's shattering of normative we feelings Suicide Social Dramas Moral Breakdowns in the Israeli Public Sphere will appeal to scholars and students of sociology and anthropology with interests in social theory Israel studies suicide studies and the interpretation of societal and cultural processes Christian Nation, 1928 The Japanese Nation Inazō Nitobe, 1912 The Victory of Love Charles Clement Cotterill, 1910

Fiction, Film, and Indian Popular Cinema Florian Stadler, 2013-10-30 This book analyses the novels of Salman Rushdie and their stylistic conventions in the context of Indian popular cinema and its role in the elaboration of the author's arguments about post independence postcolonial India Focusing on different genres of Indian popular cinema such as the Social Mythological and Historical Stadler examines how Rushdie's writing foregrounds the epic the mythic the tragic and the comic linking them in storylines narrated in cinematic parameters The book shows that Indian popular cinema's syncretism becomes an aesthetic marker in Rushdie's fiction that allows him to elaborate on the multiplicity of Indian identity both on the subcontinent and abroad and illustrates how Rushdie uses Indian popular cinema in his narratives to express an aesthetics of hybridity and a particular conceptualization of culture with which India has become identified in a global context Also highlighted are Rushdie's uses of cinema to inflect his reading of India as a pluralist nation and of the hybrid space occupied by the Indian diaspora across the world The book connects Rushdie's storylines with modes of cinematic representation to explore questions about the role place and space of the individual in relation to a fast changing social economic and political space in India and the wider world The New Nation, 1891 The Nation and Athenæum, 1912 The new nation John Morris (author of The new nation.), 1880 The Nation, 1887 ALA Bulletin American Library Association, 1966 The Principal Navigations, Voyages, Traffiques and Discoveries of the English Nation Richard Hakluyt, 1904 The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher, 1890 England's Sheet-anchor; Or, The Bible in the School, the Nation's Safeguard, and the People's Hope F.
