Out of the USSR Eva Hausbacher, Viola Parente-Čapková, Arja Rosenholm, Marja Anneli Sorvari, 2025-08-04 This book examines how women authors recall their own and their families past lives after having emigrated from the Soviet Union in the 1990s and how they reflect on their new country of residence be it Germany Austria Israel USA or Finland among others The chapters connect migration memory and gender studies to analyse literary presentations created by these travelling women The aim of the book is to pay attention both to women's contribution to cultural transfer and to the mobility of memories for the first time it brings women's narratives as a form and tool to work through both individual and collective traumas to the forefront remedying a long standing omission in Russian and post Soviet migration history At the same time the volume looks at travelling memories and cultural traumas from a gendered perspective what happens when the recollections of women's traumatic experiences of Soviet history travel through time and space As this volume argues narratives by women who left the Soviet Union often call into question official accounts of Soviet history and rewrite them in a way that makes room for gendered lived experience

How Not to Write a Novel David Armstrong, 2011-11-04 Every week agents and publishers in this country receive hundreds of manuscripts from would be authors Of these fewer than one per cent will make it into print David Armstrong was one of the one per centers his first crime novel plucked from the slush pile at a major publisher and published to acclaim So far so good But it rapidly became clear to Armstrong that being a published novelist is not always as glamorous as it seems from the outside There are the depressing ill attended readings the bitchy writers conventions the bookshops who have never heard of you and don't stock your book All of these will be familiar to any writer who like Armstrong falls into to the category euphemistically known in publishing as midlist The reality is that for every JK Rowling there are 1 000 David Armstrongs for every writer who is put up in a five star hotel and flies first class courtesy of their publisher there are 1 000 who sleep on friend s floors during book tours and dine at motorway service stations Witty acerbic and wise How Not to Write a Novel lifts the lid on publishing From agents to editors publicists to sales reps it explains the publishing process and how to survive it from the point of view of a non bestselling writer A unique book it is essential reading for anyone who dreams of getting their novel published and for anyone curious about the inside workings of the publishing game

Sundays at Sal's Diner: A Contemporary Christian Fiction Novel Kayla Lowe, A gritty Christian contemporary novel about grace second chances and the God who never gives up on us Sal Hawthorne is no saint She s the kind of woman who knows how to handle a drunk customer pour a perfect cup of coffee and hide a whiskey bottle where no one will find it Running the local diner with a sharp tongue and a guarded heart Sal has spent decades surviving haunted by memories she won t name and mistakes she won t confess Then Mandy walks in Bright eyed relentlessly kind and armed with a well worn Bible Mandy is the last person Sal wants behind her counter But this young waitress isn t intimidated by Sal s rough edges With gentle words and a quiet strength she chips away at the walls Sal has spent a lifetime building As their unlikely friendship deepens secrets begin to surface Pain from the past Shame that still stings And the question Sal has never dared to ask Could Jesus really want someone like her Told with raw honesty dark humor and a piercing sense of hope Sundays at Sal s Diner is a powerful story of redemption forgiveness and the relentless love of a Savior who meets us right where we are mess and all

The Book of Harlan Bernice L. McFadden, 2025-07-01 During WWII two African American musicians are captured by the Nazis in Paris and imprisoned at the Buchenwald concentration camp Simply miraculous As her saga becomes ever more spellbinding so does the reader s astonishment at the magic she creates This is a story about the triumph of the human spirit over bigotry intolerance and cruelty and at the center of The Book of Harlan is the restorative force that is music Washington Post McFadden s writing breaks the heart and then heals it again The perspective of a black man in a concentration camp is unique and harrowing and this is a riveting worthwhile read Toronto Star The Book of Harlan opens with the courtship of Harlan s parents and his 1917 birth in Macon Georgia After his prominent minister grandfather dies Harlan and his parents move to Harlem where he eventually becomes a professional musician When Harlan and his best friend trumpeter Lizard Robbins are invited to perform at a popular cabaret in the Parisian enclave of Montmartre affectionately referred to as The Harlem of Paris by black American musicians Harlan jumps at the opportunity convincing Lizard to join him But after the City of Light falls under Nazi occupation Harlan and Lizard are thrown into Buchenwald the notorious concentration camp in Weimar Germany irreparably changing the course of Harlan s life Based on exhaustive research and told in McFadden s mesmeric prose The Book of Harlan skillfully blends the stories of McFadden s familial ancestors with those of real and imagined characters

New Critical Approaches to Indian English Fiction O. P. Mathur, 2001      Christian Herald and Signs of Our Times ,1884      British Books ,1910      Law, Text, Terror Ian

Ward,2009-04-16 Ian Ward places contemporary political and jurisprudential responses to terrorism within a broader literary cultural and historical context     Trauma in Contemporary Literature Marita Nadal,Mónica Calvo,2014-03-26 Trauma in Contemporary Literature analyzes contemporary narrative texts in English in the light of trauma theory including essays by scholars of different countries who approach trauma from a variety of perspectives The book analyzes and applies the most relevant concepts and themes discussed in trauma theory such as the relationship between individual and collective trauma historical trauma absence vs loss the roles of perpetrator and victim dissociation nachträglichkeit transgenerational trauma the process of acting out and working through introjection and incorporation mourning and melancholia the phantom and the crypt postmemory and multidirectional memory shame and the affects and the power of resilience to overcome trauma Significantly the essays not only focus on the phenomenon of trauma and its diverse manifestations but above all consider the elements that challenge the aporias of trauma the traps of stasis and repetition in order to reach beyond the confines of the traumatic condition and explore the possibilities of survival healing and recovery
