hundred years Marlow focuses on a variety of subjects the musicians who initiated jazz performances in China the means by which jazz was incorporated into Chinese culture and the musicians and venues that now present jazz performances Featuring unique face to face interviews with leading indigenous jazz musicians in Beijing and Shanghai plus interviews with club owners promoters expatriates and even diplomats Marlow marks the evolution of jazz in China as it parallels China's social economic and political evolution through the twentieth and into the twenty first century Also featured is an interview with one of the extant members of the Jimmy King Big Band of the 1940s one of the first major all Chinese jazz big bands in Shanghai Ultimately Jazz in China From Dance Hall Music to Individual Freedom of Expression is a cultural history that reveals the inexorable evolution of a democratic form of music in a Communist state
