Shango in the New World William Russell Bascom, 1972 African Beliefs in the New World Lucie Pradel, 2000 Like a kaleidoscope the Caribbean world displays the vibrant colors of its diversity Ethnic groups from four continents brought their customs and beliefs to this New World The sheer number of African people brought to the Caribbean islands perpetuated through their spiritual vitality the central role played by traditional religions in African life Though they hadn't brought along the material support of their worship they had buried in their memory other essential supports memories of gods of myths rites rhythms tales legends proverbs songs dances sculptures all the fundamental vectors of their religious thought Through a process of secularization continuity adaptation creation syncretism and synthesis these elements helped vitalize the artistic profane and sacred domains of Caribbean cultures Black Literature and Humanism in Latin America Richard L.

Jackson, 2008-08-01 In Black Literature and Humanism in Latin America Richard L Jackson explores literary Americanism through writings of black Hispanic authors such as Carlos Guillermo Wilson Quince Duncan and Nelson Estupi n Bass that in many ways provide a microcosm for the larger literature Jackson traces the roots of Afro Hispanic literature from the early twentieth century Afrocriollo movement the Harlem Renaissance of Latin America to the fiction and criticism of black Latin Americans today Black humanism arose from Afro Hispanics self discovery of their own humanity and the realization that over the years they had become not only defenders of threatened cultures but also symbolic guardians of humanity This humanist tradition had enabled writers such as Manuel Zapata Olivella to write of a Latin America from below the slave ship deck and from inside the mind of Africa Though many writers have adopted black literary models in their quest for a poetry of sources of fundamental human values Jackson demonstrates that literature about blacks by blacks themselves is clearly separate from yet instrumental to these other works Relating the vision of Latin American blacks not only to other Latin American writers but also to North American literary critics such as Eugene Goodheart and John Gardner Jackson stresses the universal power of resisting oppression and injustice through the language of humanism Spirit Possession and
