Reinventing Anglicanism Bruce Norman Kaye, 2004 Anglicanism world wide faces huge problems in the post Empire era Churches that were originally founded as colonial and missionary outposts by Great Britain and the United States have now become autonomous Anglican provinces and what used to be a predominantly white Anglo Saxon group of churches in the northern hemisphere has become a truly global community most of whose members live in Africa Asia Latin America and the Pacific Using the experience of the Anglican Church in Australia Bruce Kaye tracks the modern story of Australian Anglicanism and reconsiders key elements of the New Testament the English Reformation and the ongoing theological tradition that relate to this story Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 31 Ralph W. Hood, Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor, 2020-11-30 Volume 31 of Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion A Diversity of Paradigms showcases two approaches to the socio scientific study of religion It includes a special section within which authors draw on data collected about congregational life in the Australian National Church Life Surveys from 1991 to present These studies give voice to minority groups and children While findings include the strengths of ethnic diversity and the positive experiences of young churchgoers they also highlight that full inclusion in local church life is far from being realized A second section explores the application of feminist approaches within the sociology of religion In their struggle for equality for women feminist scholars developed methodologies to challenge the marginality of any othered group This section showcases how use of these methods challenges hierarchies within knowledge

Making Disciples Sylvia Wilkey Collinson, 2007-01-01 The Christian faith community regards the making of disciples as a prime directive of Jesus himself though this theme is not dominant in contemporary models of teaching in the church This investigation seeks to develop a theory of discipling and to test its congruence as an effective educational strategy with the objectives of modern Christian faith communities After briefly examining the discipling model of teaching as practiced in the world of the Ancient Near East a detailed study of New Testament texts investigates the practice of discipling by Jesus and his followers and in the church of the first century An understanding of the concept of discipling is gained by gradually refining its definition as the study progresses through a contemporary examination of other informal models of education Religious and educational research findings are explored to enable the validity of the discipling model to be determined Finally the definition is used as a benchmark to examine various contemporary educational theories within the community of faith In contrast to the schooling model discipling has been shown to be an effective model for teaching attitudes values and behavior as well as knowledge and beliefs in today's church Its emphasis on commitment to learning relationships within a nurturing community and active involvement in the mission of Christ to the world and its capacity to adapt to differences in age culture ability and interests make it a model of teaching worthy of much greater attention by the Christian faith community

Exploring a Heritage Anne-Louise Eriksson, Göran Gunner, Niclas Blåder, 2012-11-08 From a historical perspective similarities among the Lutheran churches in Denmark Iceland Norway and Sweden are easily understood But these previously homogeneous northern societies built on a Lutheran tradition with close ties between church and state are now considered to be among the most secular in the world as well as being impacted by a growing presence of other religions These changes present a major challenge to the churches concerning how to relate to the state and how to be a folk church The goal of this volume is to explore how Lutheran identity presently shapes churches in the north What are the burning issues engaging these churches at the beginning of the third millennium Are there signs that they are affected by the global emergence of a theology and practice commonly known as Neo Pentecostal or Charismatic What is the situation for women in these churches embedded in societies ranked among the world's most egalitarian In what ways does their Lutheran heritage influence how these churches shape themselves today The point of departure for this study is not a predetermined normative understanding of what a Lutheran church is or should be but the fact that the churches presented here represent what Lutheranism is today in this part of the world Contributors include Anne Louise Eriksson Steinunn Arnthrudur Björnsdóttir Solveig Anna Boasdóttir Niclas Blader Carl Reinhold Brakenhielm Thomas Ekstrand Arnfriur Gu mundsdóttir Goran Gunner Harald Hegstad Hjalti Hugason Roger Jensen Halvard Johannessen Peter Lodberg Benedicte Hammer Pr stholm Karin Sarja Ulrika Svalfors Merete Thomassen Marie Thomsen Marie Vejrup Nielsen and Else Marie Wiberg Pedersen
