The American Sharpe Gareth Glover, 2016-10-30 Sharpe and his adventures has made the 95th Foot renowned again, and the discovery of an unpublished diary by an American from Charleston, South Carolina, who served despite his father's objections as an officer in this elite regiment has caused great excitement. James Penman Gairdner was born in Charleston, South Carolina, but he was sent back to the Old Country for his education, receiving his schooling at Harrow. After school, rather than joining his father's merchant business, he decided to become a soldier, receiving a commission in the famous 95th Rifles. He subsequently served without a break from the siege of Ciudad Rodrigo in January 1812 until the end of the war in 1814. He then fought in the Waterloo campaign and formed part of the Army of Occupation. He was wounded on three occasions. Throughout his service, he kept a journal which he managed to maintain on almost a daily basis. This journal, along with a number of letters that he wrote to his family, have been edited by renowned historian Gareth Glover and are presented here to the public for the first time. Readers will not find dramatic stories of great battles or adventurous escapades. Instead, Gairdner details the everyday life of one of Wellington's soldiers: one of marches and billets, of the weather, the places, and the people of the Iberian Peninsula and of Paris and Occupied France; the real nature of soldiering. His diaries also highlight the very strange relationship between these newly independent Americans and the Old Country they had so recently fought with, which even allowed for a true American boy to fight in the British Army but not in America Video Source Book, 2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies, entertainment, general interest, education, sports, recreation, fine arts, health, science, business, industry, children, juvenile, how to, instruction Sequels Janet Husband, Jonathan F.
