Forming Sleep Nancy L. Simpson-Younger,Margaret Simon,2020-04-22

Forming Sleep asks how biocultural and literary dynamics act together to shape conceptions of sleep states in the early modern period Engaging with poetry drama and prose largely written in English between 1580 and 1670 the essays in this collection highlight period discussions about how seemingly insentient states might actually enable self formation Looking at literary representations of sleep through formalism biopolitics Marxist theory trauma theory and affect theory this volume envisions sleep states as a means of defining the human condition both literally and metaphorically The contributors examine a range of archival sources including texts in early modern faculty psychology printed and manuscript medical treatises and physicians notes and printed ephemera on pathological sleep through the lenses of both classical and contemporary philosophy Essays apply these frameworks to genres such as drama secular lyric prose treatise epic and religious verse Taken together these essays demonstrate how early modern depictions of sleep shape and are shaped by the philosophical medical political and above all formal discourses through which they are articulated With this in mind the question of form merges considerations of the physical and the poetic with the spiritual and the secular highlighting the pervasiveness of sleep states as a means by which to reflect on the human condition In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Brian Chalk Jennifer Lewin Cassie Miura Benjamin Parris Giulio Pertile N Amos Rothschild Garret A Sullivan Jr and Timothy A Turner

Nature Prose Dominic Head, 2022 Nature Prose seeks to explain the popularity and appeal of contemporary writing about nature This book intervenes in key areas of contemporary debate about literature and the environment and explores the enduring appeal of writing about nature during an ecological crisis Using a range of international examples with a focus on late twentieth and early twenty first century writing from Britain and the US Dominic Head argues that nature writing contains formal effects which encapsulate our current ecological dilemma and offer a fresh resource for critical thinking The environmental crisis has injected a fresh urgency into nature writing along with a new piquancy for those readers seeking solace in the nonhuman or for those looking to change their habits in the face of ecological catastrophe However behind this apparently strong match between the aims of nature writers and the desires of their readers there is also a shared mood of radical uncertainty and insecurity The treatment and construction of nature in contemporary imaginative prose reveals some significant paradoxes beneath its dominant moods moods which are usually earnest sometimes celebratory sometimes prophetic or cautionary It is in these paradoxical moments that the contemporary ecological crisis is formally encoded in a progressive development of ecological consciousness from the late 1950s onwards Nature prose fiction and nonfiction is now contemporaneous with a defining time of crisis while also being formally fashioned by that context This is a mode of writing that emerges in a world in crisis but which is also in some ways in crisis itself With chapters on remoteness exclusivity abundance and rarity this book marks a turning point in how literary criticism engages with nature writing

Ethnic Positioning in Southwestern Mixed Heritage Writing Judit Ágnes Kádár, 2022-04-04 Ethnic Positioning in Southwestern Mixed Heritage Writing explores how Southwestern writers and visual artists provide an opportunity to turn a stigmatized identity into a self conscious holder of valuable assets cultural attitudes and memories The problem of mixed ethno cultural heritage is a relevant feature of North American populations faced by millions Narratives on blended heritage show how mixed race authors utilize their multiple ethnic experiences knowledge archives and sensibilities They explore how individuals attempt to cope with the cognitive anxiety stigmas and perceptions that are intertwined in their blended ethnic heritage family and social dynamics and the renegotiation of their ethnic identity The Southwest is a region riddled by Eurocentric and Colonial concepts of identity yet at the same time highly treasured in the Frontier experiences of physical mobility and mental and spiritual journeys and transformations Judit Ágnes Kádár argues that the process of ethnic positioning is a choice made by mixed heritage people that results in renegotiated identities leading to more complex and engaging concepts of themselves
