Shattered Glass:

Shattered Glass Angela Dickerson Hewlett, 2024-11-30 Windows Shattered Amelia Khatri, AI, 2025-02-12 Windows Shattered explores the surprising role of broken windows as potent symbols in political history and social upheaval. It argues that these acts of destruction aren't mere vandalism but visual representations of pivotal moments. The book traces the history of glass from a luxury item to a common building material to demonstrate how its presence reflects societal structures and economic inequalities. The book analyzes how shattered windows have visually represented revolutionary fervor such as during the storming of the Bastille and how they've become a visual language of protest and resistance like the suffragettes' actions. It examines specific events chronologically and thematically drawing from historical archives, news reports, personal accounts, and visual culture offering a fresh perspective on social change by focusing on the symbolic meaning behind broken windows. Windows Shattered progresses from establishing historical context to analyzing significant events where shattered windows played a crucial role and finally to examining the aftermath and long-term impact of these symbolic acts. It also addresses the debate surrounding the ethics of violent protest providing a balanced account of the complex relationship between destruction, resistance, and social progress.

Filming the First Helen J. Knowles-Gardner, Bruce E. Altschuler, Brandon T. Metroka, 2024-10-15 The First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution prohibits Congress from abridging freedom of the press. But as the printed press has been transformed into mass media with Americans now more likely to get their political information from television or social media than from print, confidence in this important mediating institution has fallen dramatically. Movies in their role as cultural artifacts have long reflected and influenced those public attitudes, inventing such iconic phrases as "Follow the money" from All the President's Men and "I'm mad as hell and I'm not going to take this anymore" from Network. Filming the First: Cinematic Portrayals of Freedom of the Press analyzes eighteen films that span from Citizen Kane to Spotlight, showing changes in how the press has been portrayed over time, which voices receive the most attention, and why. The relationship between the press's Fourth Estate role and the imperatives of capitalism and how, despite the First Amendment's seemingly absolute language, the government has sometimes been able to limit what the public can read or view.
