How Linda Died Frank Davey, 2002-04 A husband s unflinching account of his wife s unravelling How Linda Died is Frank Davey s powerful and painfully precise account of his wife s fight against an inoperable brain tumor Linda s proud refusal to tell anyone about her deteriorating condition left Frank with few people to confide in As Linda s mind fell victim to cancer Frank took to recording his memories with increasingly compulsive and private intensity He found himself reckoning with the demons of a past that Linda could no longer share and mourning the loss of a present she could no longer enjoy At the same time he found himself reflecting on the habits rituals and diversions that punctuated his life How could he reconcile his passion for showing prize winning Great Danes with s debilitating illness How could he talk about the great wines he loved or the fabulous coq au vin they had shared right after he talked about the clinical details of her approaching death or her bizarre behaviour What makes this book so special and in many ways so brilliantly odd is the life defining contrasts it records often in a single breath At once a shattering portrayal of a devastating disease and an obsessive record of one man s self interrogation amidst a welter of conflicting emotions How Linda Died is a gripping memoir beautiful in its morbidity and searing in its relentless refusal to sidestep the truth
