What We Talk About When We Talk

About Books Leah Price,2019-08-20 Reports of the death of reading are greatly exaggerated Do you worry that you've lost patience for anything longer than a tweet If so you're not alone Digital age pundits warn that as our appetite for books dwindles so too do the virtues in which printed bound objects once trained us the willpower to focus on a sustained argument the curiosity to look beyond the day's news the willingness to be alone The shelves of the world's great libraries though tell a more complicated story Examining the wear and tear on the books that they contain English professor Leah Price finds scant evidence that a golden age of reading ever existed From the dawn of mass literacy to the invention of the paperback most readers already skimmed and multitasked Print era doctors even forbade the very same silent absorption now recommended as a cure for electronic addictions The evidence that books are dying proves even scarcer In encounters with librarians booksellers and activists who are reinventing old ways of reading Price offers fresh hope to bibliophiles and literature lovers alike Winner of the Phi Beta Kappa Christian Gauss Award 2020

Talk of Treasure Jane Carswell,2019-02-01 Jane Carswell began her working life at Pegasus Press shortly after its audacious publication of Janet Frame's novel Owls Do Cry and years later she went on to write an award winning memoir called Under the Huang Jiao Tree Two journeys in China The road between one book and the other was paved with both delight and self doubt the experience provoking Jane to write again this time about the transformation between the private interior worlds of reading and meditation and the noisy exterior world of publication between the books we read and treasure and the ones we write With a wry and engaging tone she invites us into her world and its jostling demands of music teaching writing friends and family a succession of Chinese guests and travels to a world of meditation and monasteries In the spirit of the works of Anne Lamott and Kate Llewellyn the daily activities of Jane's life are bound to small breakthroughs and quiet illuminations The author becomes a perfect companion to the reader as her life writing and meditation coalesce in profound ways But as the perfect ending to her own writing journey and understanding threatens to elude her Jane journeys to where Janet Frame grew up to find the courage and wisdom to complete her own story Lyrical and literary Talk of Treasure is a compelling memoir about how to be a writer and more simply just how to be Carswell's understated writing has a rare clarity and honesty The Dominion Post Her powers of description are so acute and tender An enjoyable and fascinating account of the ways in which our passions enable us to become fully human Ruth Fowler Community Meditation teacher Jane Carswell treads not only carefully but thoughtfully and originally The Age
