idea Past Imperfect Mark C. Carnes, 1996-11-15 Essays that consider how classic movies have reflected history include the writings of such noted historians as Paul Fussell, Antonia Fraser, and Gore Vidal Cinematic Sociology Jean-Anne Sutherland, Kathryn Feltey, 2012-04-17 Cinematic Sociology is a one of a kind resource that helps students recognize and critique sociological concepts as they appear in blockbuster Hollywood films. In addition, it provides pedagogy for instructors who use film in their classes. In this engaging text, the authors take readers beyond watching movies and demonstrate how to read films sociologically. In the process, students are exposed to major substantive areas of sociology and encouraged to critically think about their social world. The book's 27 essays from expert scholars in sociology and cultural studies explore the ways social life is presented, distorted, magnified, or politicized in popular film Walking Them Home Derrick Nearing, 2019-12-18 In July of 1994, Leading Seaman Derrick Nearing, a military medic, is urgently deployed to Rwanda, a country he has never heard of, sent on a mission halfway around the world that will colour the rest of his life. In the previous months, Rwanda has lost forty percent of its seven million people, either murdered or fleeing for their lives to neighboring countries to escape the Interahamwe genocide. The mission for Derrick and his fellow soldiers is simple: to help the reconnaissance team secure the ground vehicles and materials needed to establish a hospital facility. Once this is accomplished, 247 soldiers will join them from Canada on a humanitarian mission to assist the people of Rwanda in the wake of the genocide. The mission, dubbed Operation Passage, will help refugees walk back from Goma, Zaire, to return to their towns, villages, farms, and cities all over Rwanda. The Canadians will set up rest, water, and food points and medical aid stations along the major highway into the country. As the Rwandans return, the Canadian men and women will come to witness the horrific aftermath of a genocide and an abysmal stain on the United Nations and the nations of the world that didn't act when it was so desperately needed. Based on Nearing's daily journal entries, Walking Them Home: A Soldier's Journey to Post War Rwanda is an intimate view of one soldier's journey from initial optimism and excitement at being sent to help in a faraway land to a slow descent into PTSD and depression from the nightmarish memories he cannot escape The Long Walk Home, 2003 New York Magazine, 1991-04-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1991-04-22 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Preacha' Man Carl Kenney, 2004 Simon Edward's life is in transition. After years of serving God's people Simon is no longer content with playing by the rules Over the next week he's forced to decide between love and his reputation Old demons from the past haunt him as he sorts through the deep scars caused by living a life exposed before the world Simon is facing termination due to his controversial views and the numerous rumors circulating about his personal life Rumor becomes reality as he and Jamaica the love of his life rekindle the old flame Should he walk away from the church and end his marriage or remain faithful to his calling and endure the constant intrusions into his personal space

Two Kids in Love Albert Romero, 2018-08-25 Diane and Patsy and Tito met at age ten and they fell in love and they fought for each other's love for years They would play in the rain and snow and were in the dirty street with no shoes but one thing they had was their love for each other His mom moved to the other side of the state His mom and dad didn't like Diane at all They tried to keep them apart but nothing would work He would come to see her every summer He would sing to her like a mariachi to win her heart She would break his heart and stab him but the joy they had and the love they had would not let the two rest in peace Patsy would cry for him and fight for him but whom would he pick at the end

No Way - Yes Way Reba J. Craig, 2015-08-19 Life as portrayed from a little girl's perspective through childhood until she becomes an adult She goes through tremendous barriers and obstacles from her six older siblings and only has two of them that she can trust Through all of the bitter upheavals she met them head on and never gave up

The Tribe Joseph Deaton, 2017-05-17 This road trip is a moving human record tragic poignant and humorous A true account which follows an attempt to cope with changing culture where everything is being short circuited While appearing to be a simple tale there is hidden sophistication It is a story of the first magnitude The narrative sweeps through history with camouflaged complexity In places it is a dreadful miasma filled with anger bitterness and pain from the physicist explanation of where humanity fits into the scheme of things to the small Japanese child who asks repeatedly the strangers fleeing toward the River Plio after the bomb fell why is it dark again so early in the day Exploring the intersection between science religion and culture the reader is forced to think deeply as it interrupts the long communion of our own desires when we cannot refuse to accept some of its insights With candor the tale takes one through the five stages of grief moving back and forth in time in a no holds barred fashion told by the very people who lived it Brace yourself for their passage into trouble is brutal and stark The tribe is the remnants of a long line the long column of English Knights Their solutions melt into a gripping tale that flows like a river into the heart of every person who has a family for every family has a tribe around it A special touch of this tour de force is the haunting undercurrent of a search for love among ruins P S The Tribe can be more fully understood as a part of a trilogy The Life and Crimes of Bug Tussle is the second part The trilogy was withdrawn in consideration for Angus Deaton's after he was nominated for a Nobel prize for his work in economics

Good Morning, Mr Sarra Chris Sarra,2022-11-29 One man's fight to turn the tide of low expectations When Chris Sarra arrived as the first Aboriginal principal of Cherbourg State School it was a time of high hopes but low expectations in Indigenous education Over six years he transformed the school into a national success story Along the way he battled the media the education system and a culture of complacency Good Morning Mr Sarra is the inspiring life story of a young boy from a country town who grew up to become Queensland's Australian of the Year a subject of ABC's Australian Story and one of the most outspoken and recognised educators in the country His leadership institute and its nationally acclaimed they can expect it In this anniversary edition Chris Sarra reflects on his recent life and career achievements from becoming a marathon runner to advocating for the marginalised as a director general in state government and how his work is helping forge a path to Treaty
