Hot, Flat, and Crowded Thomas L. Friedman, 2008-09-08 Examines America s loss of focus and national purpose since 9 11 and the global environmental crisis and shows how the solutions to these two problems are linked Creative Drama and Music Methods Janet E. Rubin, Margaret Merrion, 2011-01-16 The third edition of this popular text uses music and drama to promote learning across the curriculum and with all types of learners Based on arts integration standards differentiated instruction techniques and current research Creative Drama and Music Methods provides the theory along with applications to help teachers build confidence in using the arts in their daily lesson plans The text is filled with hands on activities that guide pre service and K 8th grade teachers in understanding that integrating drama and music is easy fun and vital to fostering a child s desire to explore imagine and learn Examples are provided in each chapter along with the purpose of the activity and tips for instruction Rubin and Merrion provide activities that engage elementary and middle school students and range from simple stories and rhythmic activities to story dramatization and composition All the activities can be comfortably incorporated into the classroom routine and place no additional burdens on the teacher They are especially useful for educators with valid learning goals but limited experience in creative drama and music Not typical for creative drama or music texts Creative Drama and Music Methods takes a process approach to the two arts placing primary significance on the learner s growth and development Pandemonium: the Pandamn Lorrien Crowder,2019-03-19 When a pandemic ensues it disrupts the very lives of the people causing a number of negative events crime domestic violence looting and distrust of neighbor family and friends as most people don t know how to combat the menace that goes berserk who with a voracious appetite devours the crops harvests trees and when that s all gone eventually wooded houses and people When the mighty rainforests are devoured by the menace the whole ecosystem and biodiversity of the world changes there are mega droughts superstorms flooding beyond belief and other catastrophic events that humankind is unable to deal with and less oxygen slowly decimates humankind to the next mass extinction Close Reading with Paired Texts Level 2 Lori Oczkus,Timothy Rasinski,2015-06-01 Teach second grade students close reading strategies that strengthen their fluency and comprehension skills Students will read and analyze various types of texts to get the most out of the rich content Their reading skills will improve as they answer text dependent questions compare and contrast texts and learn to use close reading strategies on their own The lessons are designed to make close reading strategies accessible interactive grade appropriate and fun The lesson plans are easy to follow and offer a practical model built on research based comprehension and fluency strategies How It Really Was Pat Gray,Patricia Hunter Gray,2000-12-20 Growing up during the Depression in a small Indiana town I had never seen a mountain or an ocean when I was twenty one and had scarcely been outside the state I had a passion for travel and set out alone for California after World War II I discovered a new world of sunny beaches housing shortages and a job as a traveling saleslady for a music publisher My territory was everything west of the Mississippi In Montana I met a young University band director and married him Montana was great at first but twelve years and three children later I felt as trapped as I had in Indiana Soon my husband got a job in California and life became exciting once more as we traveled the state camping at beaches and parks on weekends and vacations When the kids became teenagers we decided to camp Europe so we saved furiously in order to go It was the trip of a lifetime and it infected the whole family with the travel bug the kids became exchange students citizens of the world Once they went off to college and became adults I found adventure on my own traveling the globe Green Phoenix William Allen,2003-01-09 Can we prevent the destruction of the world s tropical forests In the fire scarred hills of Costa Rica award winning science writer William Allen found a remarkable answer we can not only prevent their destruction we can bring them back to their former glory In Green Phoenix Allen tells the gripping story of a large group of Costa Rican and American scientists and volunteers who set out to save the tropical forests in the northwestern section of the country It was an area badly damaged by the fires of ranchers and small farmers in many places a few strands of forest strung across a charred landscape Despite the widely held belief that tropical forests once lost are lost forever the team led by the dynamic Daniel Janzen from the University of Pennsylvania moved relentlessly ahead taking a broad array of political ecological and social steps necessary for restoration They began with 39 square miles and by 2000 they had stitched together and revived some 463 square miles of land and another 290 of marine area Today this region is known as the Guanacaste Conservation Area a fabulously rich landscape of dry forest cloud forest and rain forest that gives life to some 235 000 species of plants and animals It may be the greatest environmental success of our time a prime example of how extensive devastation can be halted and reversed This is an inspiring story and in recounting it Allen writes with vivid power He creates lasting images of pristine beaches and dense forest and captures the heroics and skill of the scientific teams especially the larger than life personality of the maverick ecologist Daniel Janzen It is a book everyone concerned about the environment will want to own 100 Places that Can Change Your Child's Life
