The Phenomenology of Love and Reading Cassandra Falke, 2018-05-31 The current revival of interest in ethics in literary criticism coincides fortuitously with a revival of interest in love in philosophy The literary return to ethics also coincides with a spate of neuroscientific discoveries about cognition and emotion But without a philosophical grounding this new work cannot speak convincingly about literature s relationship to our ethical lives Jean Luc Marion s articulation of a phenomenology of love provides this philosophical grounding The Phenomenology of Love and Reading accepts Jean Luc Marion s argument that love matters for who we are more than anything more than cognition and more than being itself Cassandra Falke shows how reading can strengthen our capacity to love by giving us practice in love s habits attention empathy and a willingness to be overwhelmed Confounding our expectations literature equips us for the confounding events of love which Falke suggests are not rare and fleeting but rather constitute the most meaningful and durable part of our everyday life

Love is the Law Marieta Oslanec, Esq. , 2019-10-22 It took me 16 years to understand that in order to find true love happiness peace and abundance I needed to go within During those years I experienced several painful breakups and went from one relationship to another only to realize that the most important love is self love The most painful break up was the beginning of my life long love story I moved from Slovakia to the USA with only 700 USD and without speaking a word of English I put myself through law school and became a licensed attorney in New York Nobody would hire me so I started my own company and hired myself I then decided to challenge myself further and travel the world solo I spent 30 days in complete silence in meditation retreats throughout Bali Nepal and Hawaii During this period I faced my deepest fears and came to discover that they were only illusions The truth is many of our fears are not real they are just our ego trying to protect us What is real is love and that is our higher self The Universe is governed by the ultimate Law that
