

The background of the slide is a painting depicting a medieval battle scene. In the center, a knight in dark armor and a red surcoat is mounted on a brown horse, engaged in combat with another knight. To the left, a knight in a red surcoat is also on horseback. In the foreground, a knight in a red surcoat is on the ground, possibly fallen. The background shows a hazy landscape with a body of water and distant hills.

Caffaro, Genoa and the Twelfth-Century Crusades Martin Hall,Jonathan Phillips,2016-04-15 This volume provides the first comprehensive English translation with a substantial introduction and notes of the writings of Caffaro of Genoa as well as related texts and documents on Genoa and the crusades The majority of early crusading historiography is from a northern European and clerical perspective Here is a very different voice one with a more secular Mediterranean tone To see the similarities and differences with the mainstream sources offers an exciting new dimension to our understanding of the reception of crusading ideas in the Mediterranean and given Genoa s prominence in the commercial world can help to illuminate the complex and controversial relationship between holy war and financial gain Caffaro s main composition the Annals of Genoa began with the First Crusade and extended down to 1163 It also covers the city s dealings with the Papacy the German Empire Sicily Muslim Spain and Pisa as well as the development of Genoa itself Sections from Caffaro s continuators take the story down to the Third Crusade Caffaro s two other texts are exclusively about the crusades The Liberation of the Cities of the East and The Capture of Almer a and Tortosa while associated with him but of a later date is the Short History of Jerusalem Alongside these narratives are a number of charters and letters that relate to and complement the main texts These relate to matters such as Genoese privileges in the Holy Land and form a valuable resource in their own right Placed alongside Caffaro s narratives they can show the blend of commercial energy civic pride and religious conviction that were the basis of Genoese activity in the complex world of the medieval Mediterranean Crusade and Christendom Jessalynn Lea Bird,Edward Peters,James M.
