1906-2013 Emilie Le Febvre, 2023-12-22 Introducing a novel anthropological study of photography in the Middle East Emilie Le Febvre takes us to the Naqab Desert where Bedouin use photographs to make and respond to their own histories She argues Bedouin presentations of the past are selective but increasingly reliant on archival documents such as photographs which spokespersons treat as evidence of their local histories amid escalating tensions in Israel These practices shape Bedouin visual historicity that is the diverse ways people produce their pasts in the present with images This book charts these processes through the afterlives of six photographs c 1906 2013 as they circulate between the Naqab's entangled visual economies a transregional landscape organised by cultural ideals of proximity and assemblages of Bedouin iconography Le Febvre illustrates how representational contentions associated with tribal civic and Palestinian Israeli politics influence how images do history work in this society She concludes Bedouin visual historicity is defined by acts of persuasion during which photographs authenticate alternating history projects Here Bedouin value photographs not because they evidence singular narratives of the past Rather the knowledges inscribed by photography are multifarious as they support diverse constructions of history and society with which members mediate a wide range of relationships in southern Israel This book bridges studies of anthropology photography Palestinian Israeli politics and Bedouin Middle East history

Semblance and Signification Pascal Michelucci, Olga Fischer, Christina Ljungberg, 2011-11-23 The articles assembled in Semblance and Signification explore linguistic and literary structures from a range of theoretical perspectives with a view to understanding the extent prevalence productivity and limitations of iconically grounded forms of semiosis With the complementary examination of large theoretical issues extensive corpus analysis in several modern languages such as Italian Japanese Sign Language and English and applied close studies across a range of artistic media this volume brings a fresh understanding of the cognitive underpinnings of iconicity If primary and secondary modelling systems are rarely studied in tandem it is clear from this volume that their fruitful juxtaposition yields striking insight into the cognitive concerns that pervade current semiotic research Surface Surveillance Photography United States.
