Bales,2022-09-22 Nelson Algren was a renowned Chicago writer known for his social commentary and his novels like The Man with the Golden Arm and A Walk on the Wild Side Although he continues to be remembered almost exclusively for his novels this book aims to highlight the value and influence of his short form works Before he died in 1981 Algren had amassed a genre defying body of work including short stories articles poems and book reviews The present book features a comprehensive analysis and discussion of Algren s lost literature including everything but his novels One of the pieces covered is a masterpiece of race relations written in 1950 more than 60 years before the galvanization of the Black Lives Matter movement Another is a scathing poem about Algren s transatlantic love affair with Simone de Beauvoir Both items are reprinted in the book courtesy of the Algren estate This book also includes references to Algren s works that have yet to be studied by Algren scholars The Force of Beauty Holly Grout,2015-05-13 The market for commercial beauty products exploded in Third Republic France with a proliferation of goods promising to erase female imperfections and perpetuate an aesthetic of femininity that conveyed health and respectability While the industry s meteoric growth helped to codify conventional standards of womanhood The Force of Beauty goes beyond the narrative of beauty culture as a tool for sociopolitical subjugation to show how it also targeted women as important consumers in major markets and created new avenues by which they could express their identities and challenge or reinforce gender norms As cosmetics companies and cultural media from magazines to novels to cinema urged women to aspire to commercial standards of female perfection beauty evolved as a goal to be pursued rather than a biological inheritance The products and techniques that enabled women to embody society s feminine ideal also taught them how to fashion their bodies into objects of desire and thus offered a subversive tool of self expression Holly Grout explores attempts by commercial beauty culture to reconcile a standard of respectability with female sexuality as well as its efforts to position French women within the global phenomenon of changing views on modern womanhood Grout draws on a wide range of primary sources hygiene manuals professional and legal debates about the right to fabricate and distribute medicines advertisements for beauty products and contemporary fiction and works of art to explore how French women navigated changing views on femininity Her seamless integration of gender studies with business history aesthetics and the history of medicine results in a textured and complex study of the relationship between the politics of womanhood and the politics of beauty Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe,2000 Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer,2011-03-15 If questions of subjectivity and identification are at stake in all biographical writing they are particularly trenchant for contemporary women biographers of women Often their efforts to exhume buried lives in hope of finding spiritual foremothers awaken maternal phantoms that must be embraced or confronted Do women writing in fact have any greater access to their own mothers lives than to the lives of other women whose stories have been swept away like dust in the debris of the past In Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer surveys modern women s biographies and contemplates alternatives to an approach based in lineage and the form of thought that emphasizes the line the path hierarchy unity resemblance reflection and the aesthetic mimesis that depends on these ideas Through close readings of memoirs and fictions about mothers Beizer explores how biographers of the women who came before rehearse and rewrite relationships to their own mothers biographically as they seek to appropriate the past in a hybrid genre she calls bio autography Thinking through the Mothers features the work of George Sand and Colette and spans such varied figures as Gustave Flaubert Julian Barnes Louise Colet Eunice Lipton Vladimir Nabokov Huguette Bouchardeau and Christa Wolf Beizer seeks an alternative to women s salvation biography or resurrection biography that might resist nostalgia be attentive to silence and reinvent the means to represent the lives of precursors without appropriating traditional models of genealogy
