The Secret of the Jews David Ben Moshe, David Morrison, 2008 Explain why so many American Jews are deeply uncomfortable with this outpouring of Christian support

Secret Groups in Ancient Judaism Michael Stone, 2017-09-27 Were there groups in Ancient Judaism that cultivated esoteric knowledge and transmitted it secretly With the discovery and burgeoning study of the Dead Sea Scrolls and particularly of the documents legislating the social structure of the Qumran group the foremost paradigm for analysis of the group's social structure has become the sect This is still dominant having replaced the monastic paradigm used by some of the earliest scholars of the Scrolls But after studying what has been written on secret societies more generally Michael Stone has concluded that many known ancient Jewish groups the Qumran covenanters Josephus's and Philo's Essenes and Philo's Therapeutae should be viewed as societies at the heart of whose existence were esoteric knowledge and practice Guarding and transmitting this esoteric knowledge and practice Stone argues provided the dynamic that motivated the social and conceptual structure of these groups Analyzing them as secret societies he says enables us to see previously latent social structural dimensions and provides many new enriching insights into the groups including the Dead Sea covenanters By examining historical and literary sources Stone uncovers evidence for the existence of other secret groups in ancient Jewish society This line of study leads Stone not only to consider the classical Jewish apocalypses as pseudo esoteric but also to discern in them the footsteps of hidden truly esoteric traditions cultivated in the circles that produced the apocalypses This discovery has significant implications especially considering the enormous growth of study of the apocalyptic in the Judaism of the Second Temple period and in nascent Christianity over the last seventy years
