Secrets of the Invisible World Disclosed Andrew Moreton, 2014-03-30 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1729 Edition Or A Universal History Of Apparitions Sacred And Profane Under All Denominations Whether Angelical Diabolical Or Human Souls Departed An Alphabetical Catalogue of an Extensive Collection of the Writings of Daniel Defoe and of

Different Publications for and Against that Very Extraordinary Writer Daniel Defoe, Machell Stace, 1829 Dictionary of Anonymous and Pseudonymous English Literature Samuel Halkett, 1971 Trading Secrets Mark Huband, 2012-12-14

Today's intelligence community faces challenges that would have been inconceivable only a dozen years ago. Just as al Qaeda's destruction of the Twin Towers heralded a revolution in global diplomacy, the events of 9/11 also threw two centuries of spy craft into turmoil because this new enemy could not be bought. Gone were the sleepers and moles whose trade in secrets had sustained intelligence agencies in both peacetime and war. A new method of intelligence had been born. The award-winning former Financial Times security correspondent Mark Huband here takes us deep inside this new unseen world of spies and intelligence. With privileged access to intelligence officers from Rome to Kabul and from Khartoum to Guantanamo Bay, he reveals how spies created secret channels to the IRA, deceived Iran's terrorist allies, frequently attempted to infiltrate al Qaeda, and forced Libya to abandon its nuclear weapons. Using accounts from ex-KGB officers, Huband vividly describes the devastation caused by the West's misreading of Soviet intentions in Africa and explains how ill-prepared western intelligence agencies were when the Cold War was replaced by the perception of a new terrorist threat. Benefiting from privileged access to intelligence sources across the world, Trading Secrets provides a unique and controversial assessment of the catastrophic failure of spies to grasp the realities of the Taliban's grip on Afghanistan and draws upon exclusive interviews with serving officers in assessing the ability of the major intelligence agencies to combat the threat of twenty-first century terrorism.

In/Visible Subjects Gero Guttzeit, 2025-10-28 In/Visible Subjects explores the cultural fascination with invisible characters in literature. While the concept of social invisibility is common in contemporary political discourse, there exists no comprehensive analysis of the history of the cultural metaphor of invisibility. This book addresses this gap by tracing the literary evolution of invisibility in narratives from the eighteenth century to the present. The monograph examines literal and metaphorical invisibility in terms of both content and form, offering exemplary readings of literary texts by eighteenth-century women novelists Eliza Haywood and Susanna Rowson, Romantic poets Anna Letitia Barbauld and John Keats, nineteenth-century writers of fantasy and science fiction including James Forbes Dalton, Fitz James O'Brien, and H.G. Wells, and early twentieth-century authors such as G.K. Chesterton, Virginia Woolf, and Ralph Ellison, and contemporary writers China Miéville and Jennifer Egan. In/Visible Subjects aims to establish a new literary foundation for the emerging field of invisibility studies. It is of interest to scholars in literary and cultural studies working on narrative, literary character, subjectivity, and identity.
