Nineteenth-Century Religion, Literature and Society Rebecca Styler,2020-12-14 This four volume historical resource provides new opportunities for investigating the relationship between religion literature and society in Britain and its imperial territories by making accessible a diverse selection of harder to find primary sources These include religious fiction poetry essays memoirs sermons travel writing religious ephemera unpublished notebooks and pamphlet literature Spanning the long nineteenth century c 1789 1914 the resource departs from older models of the Victorian crisis of faith in order to open up new ways of conceptualising religion This first volume looks at Traditions offering an overview of the different religious traditions and denominations present in Britain during this period The Lloyd Geering Reader Lloyd Geering,2007 Covering a period of more than 45 years this is the first collection of the writings of international figure Lloyd Geering a premier public intellectual who was once found guilty of heresy by the Presbyterian Church With never before seen material this compendium demonstrates the remarkable consistency in the thought of this increasingly influential thinker Provocative and heartfelt this compilation provides a fascinating coverage of the engagement of religion and the modern world Romanticism and the Re-Invention of Modern Religion Alexander J. B. Hampton,2019-01-17 The fundamental concern of Romanticism which brought about its inception determined its development and set its end was the need to create a new language for religion

Nineteenth-Century Religion, Literature and Society Naomi Hetherington,Clare Stainthorp,2020-12-14 This four volume historical resource provides new opportunities for investigating the relationship between religion literature and society in Britain and its imperial territories by making accessible a diverse selection of harder to find primary sources These include religious fiction poetry essays memoirs sermons travel writing religious ephemera unpublished notebooks and pamphlet literature Spanning the long nineteenth century c 1789 1914 the resource departs from older models of the Victorian crisis of faith in order to open up new ways of conceptualising religion Volume four on Disbelief and New Beliefs explores the transformation of the religious landscape of Britain and its imperial territories during the nineteenth century as a result of key cultural and intellectual forces The Shape of Spirituality Dick Houtman,Galen Watts,2024-10-15 Around 20 percent of Americans fall into the category of spiritual but not religious Yoga has become a ubiquitous pastime for middle class Westerners Mindfulness is increasingly incorporated into school curricula

sports programs and even corporate culture Hollywood icons and Silicon Valley trendsetters tout the benefits of a spiritual life These developments reflect a widespread turn away from religion toward spirituality Yet the nature of this spiritual turn is still poorly understood and its consequences sorely underappreciated The Shape of Spirituality brings together leading sociologists to challenge common notions that spirituality is individualistic privatized and apolitical and to make the definitive case for its social and political significance Contributors examine the sweeping influence of spirituality on a variety of realms including health care and therapeutic practice popular culture civic engagement public protest conspiracy culture and progressive politics Leveraging cutting edge quantitative and qualitative data this authoritative book makes clear that far from being marginal and inconsequential spirituality holds profound public importance today Sacro-Egoism John S. Knox, 2016-05-10 Sacro Egoism The Rise of Religious Individualism in the West discusses the relationship between secularization participation in religious practices and belief and the emergence of radical individualized expressions of faith in the West Using McMinnville Oregon as a case study it presents the data collected and analyzed from several churches denominations and spiritual settings in that unassuming town and compares it to the results of Heelas and Woodhead's Spiritual Revolution project arriving at a provocative conclusion Rather than abandoning Christianity for alternative spirituality practices McMinnville citizens still feel strongly about their Christian faith taking their spiritual walk to a more personal level than ever before in church history Utilizing both quantitative and qualitative research along with personal stories of faith and exploration from McMinnville residents themselves Sacro Egoism The Rise of Religious Individualism in the West tells a story of radical individualists who have become the highest religious authority in their lives even over the church the Bible and traditional Christian society Religion and Mass Electoral Behaviour in Europe David Broughton, Hans-Martien ten Napel, 2000-12-14 The onset of a new millennium has given renewed impetus to the study of religion and its place in the secular world Religion and Mass Electoral Behaviour in Europe is an innovative cutting edge study which focuses on the question of whether and how religion continues to influence and shape electoral behaviour across Europe With exceptional detail this book presents empirical data drawn from a range of country case studies to provide examples of different religious experiences and relationships Themelios, Volume 38, Issue 3 D. The Deconstruction of Dualism in Theology Gillian McCulloch, 2002 Between Horror and Hope is a study of Paul's metaphorical language of death in Romans 6:1-11. The scholarly debate focuses on two main issues: the origin of the commentary tradition and its development. Dr. Sabou argues that the origin of this terminology is original to Paul; that it was the apostle's own insight into the meaning of Christ's death—a death to sin and his understanding of the identity of Christ in his death as the anointed Davidic king—which guided him to create this metaphor of dying to sin as a way of describing the relationship of the believer with sin. On the development of this language of death, the author argues that this language conveys two aspects: horror and hope. The first is discussed in the context of crucifixion, in which Paul explains the believer's death to sin by presenting Christ's death as the death of the anointed Davidic king who won the victory over sin and death by rising from the dead. Paul affirms that believers are coalesced with what was proclaimed about Christ's death and resurrection, thereby allowing him to assert that the releasing of the body from the power of sin is a result of crucifixion. This crucifixion is the condemnation inflicted on our past lives in the age inaugurated by Adam's sin, and this is such a horrible event that believers have to stay away from sin since sin leads to such punishment. In contrast, hope is presented in the context of burial. The believer's burial with Christ points to the fact that they are part of Christ's family, and this is accomplished by the overwhelming action of God by which he pushes us toward the event of Christ's death, an act pictured in baptism. It is this burial with Christ that allows believers to share with Christ in newness of life.

Bioethics and Secular Humanism H. Tristram Engelhardt, 2011-04-01 Bioethics is vitally important in our day because it represents the critical expression of interest in the proper use of medical science to provide health care. Secular humanism is important because it is a central factor in constructing a common morality that does not make special appeal to such things as religious assumptions. The argument of this book therefore will be of profound interest to all who are concerned for the well-being of humanity in today's world. Imagine the author says: Roman Catholics and committed atheists disputing over proper abortion policies. Imagine individuals who wish to organize a for-profit surrogate mother service confronting individuals who view such endeavors as exploitation of women. To what moral premise do they appeal? Are power and influence the deciding factors, or is it possible to establish certain principles to which all may appeal? In answer, Professor Engelhardt examines the various meanings of secularity and humanism, clearly showing how complex they are. Alongside this, he demonstrates the diversity of bioethics and the problems of laying a foundation for it Based on these considerations he identifies which ways forward are the most promising The urgency of the task is clear New biomedical possibilities are surfacing at the very time that demands to contain health care costs pose difficult ethical problems

Astrology and Popular Religion in the Modern West

Nicholas Campion,2016-04-15 This book explores an area of contemporary religion spirituality and popular culture which has not so far been investigated in depth the phenomenon of astrology in the modern west Locating modern astrology historically and sociologically in its religious New Age and millenarian contexts Nicholas Campion considers astrology s relation to modernity and draws on extensive fieldwork and interviews with leading modern astrologers to present an invaluable contribution to our understanding of the origins and nature of New Age ideology This book challenges the notion that astrology is either marginal or a feature of postmodernism Concluding that astrology is more popular than the usual figures suggest Campion argues that modern astrology is largely shaped by New Age thought influenced by the European Millenarian tradition that it can be seen as an heir to classical Gnosticism and is part of the vernacular religion of the modern west
