Security Sector Reform Issues Challenges And Prospects:

Security Sector Reform Jane Chanaa, 2002 Over the last decade the failure of countries to emerge from conflict has focused attention on state security sectors This book examines how the external approaches to security sector reform SSR have evolved and what they entail the specific problems faced by the SSR agenda and what policy recommendations for engagement can be drawn from reform experiences

Reform and Reconstruction of the Security Sector Alan Bryden, Heiner Hänggi, 2004 Security sector reform SSR is widely recognised as key to conflict prevention peace building sustainable development and democratisation SSR has gained most practical relevance in the context of post conflict reconstruction of so called failed states and states emerging from violent internal or inter state conflict As this volume shows almost all states need to reform their security sectors to a greater or lesser extent according to the specific security political and socio economic contexts as well as in response to the new security challenges resulting from globalisation and post 9 11 developments Contributions from academics and practitioners elaborate on both the conceptual underpinnings and the practical realities of security sector reform and a crucial aspect of post conflict peace building security sector reconstruction

Security Sector Reform in Conflict-Affected Countries Mark Sedra, 2016-11-03 This book examines the evolution impact and future prospects of the Security Sector Reform SSR model in conflict affected countries in the context of the wider debate over the liberal peace project Since its emergence as a concept in the late 1990s SSR has represented a paradigm shift in security assistance from the realist regime centric train and equip approach of the Cold War to a new liberal holistic and people centred model The rapid rise of this model however belied its rather meagre impact on the ground This book critically examines the concept and its record of achievement over the past two decades putting it into the broader context of peace building and state building theory and practice It focuses attention on the most common celebrated and complex setting for SSR conflict affected environments and comparatively examines the application and impacts of donor supported SSR programming in a series of conflict affected countries over the past two decades including Afghanistan Sierra Leone the Democratic Republic of Congo East Timor and Bosnia Herzegovina The broader aim of the book is to better understand how the contemporary SSR model has coalesced over the past two decades and become mainstreamed in international development and security policy and practice This provides a solid foundation to investigate the reasons for the poor performance of the model and to assess its prospects for the future This book will be of much interest to students of international security peacebuilding statebuilding development studies and IR in general

Research in Security Sector Reform Policy Andrea Edoardo Varisco, 2017-07-19 This book investigates the extent to which research has influenced and interacted with SSR policies programmes and activities implemented by the UK in conflict affected Sierra Leone Varisco uses concepts and notions from the literature on the policy process and research utilisation to explore the ways in which research has influenced UK led SSR policy Here the author analyses the evolution of the network of policy makers street level bureaucrats and researchers working on SSR in Sierra Leone and argues that two main variables an increased stability in the country and a progressive evolution of SSR in policy and research contributed to the expansion of the policy network over time and to a better use of research by street level bureaucrats on the ground This title derives from the Sierra Leone case study a series of recommendations to improve the use of research by international organisations and bilateral donors working in fragile states

The Politics of Security Sector Reform Magnus Ekengren,2016-02-24 Security Sector Reform SSR is increasingly becoming a cornerstone in international security and development cooperation Indeed the concept has often been seen as a panacea for many of the biggest threats to the world such as failed states terrorism and poverty In particular this book focuses on the complexities of implementation of SSR across the globe and the actual and potential role for the European Union EU to play in SSR As suggested in the title of the book this involves not only opportunities but challenges to be overcome as well There are three core themes to this book Policy Policies and Practice By presenting the themes in this particular order a greater appreciation of the influences on the process of SSR from conception to implementation is relayed to the reader This volume appeals to audiences interested in the EU as a global actor and the interrelationships between foreign security defence and development policies

Handbook of International Security and Development Paul Jackson,2015-02-27 Providing a comprehensive introduction to the literature and approaches used in the field this illustrious Handbook explores and interrogates the link between security and development at a global level whilst offering a broad survey of current thinking

Challenges to Security Sector Reform Len Le Roux,Yemane Kidane,2007 Security sector reform SSR is key to ensuring sustainable democratisation and peacebuilding processes in the Horn of Africa This monograph edited by Len Le Roux and Yemane Kidane compares SSR experiences in the region and highlights security reform challenges facing the Horn of Africa SSR in the Horn should include both restructuring of security institutions and strengthening of political judicial and civil society oversight capacities It should also be based on a comprehensive accurate analysis of overall regional and national contexts

Local Ownership and Security Sector Reform Timothy Donais,2008 The notion of local ownership has emerged in recent years as part of the contemporary commonsense of security sector reform SSR While the argument that externally driven reform processes are unsustainable is now widely accepted the principle of local ownership has proven difficult to both define and operationalise With contributions by leading practitioners both insiders and outsiders Local Ownership and Security Sector Reform subjects the broader issue of local ownership to critical scrutiny furthers the debate on what local ownership is and why it matters and explores how ownership issues have played out in the context of specific SSR case studies

Rebuilding the Security Sector in Post-conflict Societies Judy Smith-Höhn,2010 In Liberia and Sierra Leone strategies to reform and reconstruct the security sector have centred on re establishing the state s monopoly on the use of force However little attention is given to the array of non state actors that often play a major role in how individuals and communities experience security Rebuilding the Security Sector in Post

Conflict Societies Perceptions from Urban Liberia and Sierra Leone seek to address this gap by applying a human security approach to security provision across these two contexts A key point of departure is that in the long run there can be no alternative within post conflict societies to a locally owned security sector Operationalising the concept of local ownership means that internationally supported security sector reform SSR activities need to reflect these local realities As explored within this study fostering synergies between state and non state security actors may therefore offer an important avenue to support more sustainable legitimate SSR efforts Judy Smith H hn is a senior researcher at the Institute for Security Studies in Pretoria South Africa Prior to her present position she was a research fellow at the GIGA Institute of African Affairs in Hamburg Germany and later a senior researcher at the Centre for Conflict Resolution in Cape Town in South Africa Her thematic emphases lie in the areas of violent conflict and its prevention and security sector reform within a regional focus on Liberia Sierra Leone Zambia and Zimbabwe She has published nationally and internationally on topics ranging from security sector reform and postconflict peacebuilding to democratic transformation in South Africa She holds a PhD from the University of Leipzig Germany and a Diplom masters degree in Political Science from the University of Hamburg Germany

Statebuilding and Justice Reform Matteo Tondini, 2010-02-25 The book provides an updated account of justice reform in Afghanistan which started in the wake of the US led military intervention of 2001 In particular it focuses on the role of international actors and their interaction with local stakeholders highlighting some provisional results together with problems and dilemmas encountered in the reform activities Since the mid 1990s justice system reform has become increasingly important in state building operations particularly with regard to the international administrations of Bosnia Kosovo East Slavonia and East Timor Statebuilding and Justice Reform examines in depth the reform of justice in Afghanistan evaluating whether the success of reform may be linked to any specific feature or approach In doing so it stresses the need for development programmes in the field of justice to be implemented through a multilateral approach involving domestic authorities and other relevant stakeholders Success is therefore linked to limiting the political interests of donors establishing functioning pooled financing mechanisms restricting the use of bilateral projects improving the efficacy of technical and financial aid and concentrating the attention on the demand for justice at local level rather than on the traditional supply of financial and technical assistance This book will be of much interest to students of Afghanistan intervention and statebuilding peacekeeping and post conflict reconstruction as well as International Relations in general Matteo Tondini is a researcher and a legal advisor He has served as a project advisor to the Embassy of Italy in Kabul Development Cooperation Unit working within the Afghanistan Justice Program and has a Phd in Political Systems and Institutional Change from the Institute of Advanced Studies Lucca Italy

The European Union as an Actor in Security Sector Reform Oya Dursun-Ozkanca, 2017-09-19 This book critically analyzes the European Union s role in Security Sector Reform SSR a topical issue with regards to European security While the literature on SSR has increased significantly in the past decade too little remain in the way of comparative analyses of SSR case studies that are geared toward theory development This collection strives to push the SSR literature in that direction One key question it focuses on is whether the EU pursues a holistic approach vis vis SSR Another question the book addresses is why and how the EU activities towards SSR in conflict management peacebuilding and statebuilding have produced a wide variety of outcomes that range from the failure to reform any or all of the sub set of security sectors police justice military etc to complete and integrated reform The volume encompasses all relevant cases of SSR in terms of the financial human and political resources involved at the EU level Cases are drawn from the Balkans Kosovo Bosnia Herzegovina Africa Democratic Republic of Congo the Middle East Palestinian Territories Post Soviet Space Georgia and Asia Aceh Indonesia The end product is a welcome contribution to the literature providing both an empirically and theoretically grounded approach to the study of SSR This book was originally published as a special issue of European Security Peacebuilding and Local Ownership Timothy Donais,2012-10-02 This book explores the meaning of local ownership in peacebuilding and examines the ways in which it has been and could be operationalized in post conflict environments In the context of post conflict peacebuilding the idea of local ownership is based upon the premise that no peace process is sustainable in the absence of a meaningful degree of local involvement Despite growing recognition of the importance of local ownership however relatively little attention has been paid to specifying what precisely the concept means or how it might be implemented This volume contributes to the ongoing debate on the future of liberal peacebuilding through a critical investigation of the notion of local ownership and challenges conventional assumptions about who the relevant locals are and what they are expected to own Drawing on case studies from Bosnia Afghanistan and Haiti the text argues that local ownership can only be fostered through a long term consensus building process which involves all levels of the conflict affected society This book will be of great interest to students of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies development studies security studies and IR Rethinking Security Governance Christopher Daase,Cornelius Friesendorf,2010-05-04 This book explores the unintended consequences of security governance actions and explores how their effects can be limited Security governance describes new modes of security policy that differ from traditional approaches to national and international security While traditional security policy used to be the exclusive domain of states and aimed at military defense security governance is performed by multiple actors and is intended to create a global environment of security for states social groups and individuals By pooling the strength and expertise of states international organizations and private actors security governance is seen to provide more effective and efficient means to cope with today s security risks Generally security governance is assumed to be a good thing and the most appropriate way of coping with contemporary security problems This assumption has led scholars to neglect an important phenomenon unintended consequences While unintended consequences do not need to be negative often they are The CIA term blowback for example refers to the phenomenon that a long nurtured group may turn against its sponsor The rise of al

Qaeda which had benefited from US Cold War policies is only one example Raising awareness about unwanted and even paradoxical policy outcomes and suggesting ways of avoiding damage or limiting their scale this book will be of much interest to students of security governance risk management international security and IR Christopher Daase is Professor at the Goethe University Frankfurt and head of the research department International Organizations and International Law at the Peace Research Institute Frankfurt PRIF HSFK Cornelius Friesendorf is lecturer at the Goethe University Frankfurt and research fellow at the Peace Research Institute Frankfurt PRIF HSFK United Nations Peace Operations in a Changing Global Order Cedric de Coning, Mateja Peter, 2018-10-11 I have seen the UN perform on a changing global stage in many UN missions This book examines how the UN must continue to evolve amongst changing state actors differing regional organisations and a constant global paradigm shift It is essential material for enhancing one's understanding of the nature of international conflict and for the continued relevance of the UN as a key stakeholder and participant in world affairs Maj Gen Kristin Lund Head of Mission and Chief of Staff UN peacekeeping mission in the Middle East UNTSO This outstanding collection is a must read for anyone interested in the central challenges of peacekeeping today From big ideas about changes in global order to more focused analyses of policing and the protection of civilians this book provides a comprehensive overview of where peacekeeping is now and what we may expect in the future Lise Morj Howard Associate Professor Georgetown University The book analyses recent developments in UN peacekeeping in the context of the historic changes underway in the global order I would recommend it to policy makers peacekeepers and scholars who wish to understand optimise and improve the effectiveness of modern peacekeeping Lt Gen Carlos Alberto dos Santos Cruz former Force Commander in the UN missions in the DRC MONUSCO and Haiti MINUSTAH Peacekeeping has been the most visible UN activity in its primary mandate to maintain international peace and security In a world in disarray as security threats mutate and the world order shifts away from US primacy and fresh challenges arise the UN must respond with nimbleness and flexibility to stay relevant This exceptional collection of analyses by experts from both the global North and South will be of interest to practitioners and scholars alike highly recommended Ramesh Thakur Professor Australian National University Peacekeeping is not what it was even a decade ago global power is shifting new types of conflicts are emerging and demands on the United Nations and regional organizations are growing Anyone interested in contemporary conflict resolution and the changing character of international peace operations should read this excellent book Roland Paris Professor of International Affairs University of Ottawa This book is an insightful and forward looking scholarly contribution to debates within the United Nations It shows how profound the recent changes affecting peace operations are and pushes us all to rethink our assumptions about conflict peace and the role of international organizations It could not come at a better moment Jean Marie Guehenno UN High level Advisory Board on Mediation former UN Under Secretary General for Peacekeeping Operations div This open access book explores how UN peace operations are adapting to four transformational trends in the changing global order 1 the rebalancing of relations between states of the global North and the global South 2 the rise of regional organisations as providers of peace 3 the rise of violent extremism and fundamentalist non state actors and 4 increasing demands from non state actors for greater emphasis on human security It identifies emerging conflict and peace trends robustness of responses rise of non state threats cross state conflicts and puts them in the context of tectonic shifts in the global order rise of emerging powers North South rebalancing emergence of regional organisations as providers of peace The volume stimulates a discussion between practitioners and academics from the global North and South and offers an analysis of how the international community collectively makes sense of the changing global order and its implications for UN peace operations div Politics in Crisis? Jana Jonasova, Ekaterina Kolpinskaya, Marie Paxton, 2015-09-18 Exploring and challenging the assumption that politics is in crisis this volume brings together a series of conference papers from the University of Nottingham Post Graduate Conference of April 2013 It includes fourteen research papers from contributors from universities around the world as well as an afterword written by Professor Michael Freedon of the University of Nottingham Speaking to the common theme of Politics in Crisis the papers draw on a range of different theoretical and methodological perspectives in order to critique the notion of politics as both a theoretical concept and political practice The volume brings together conference discussions centred around British Politics International Political Economy International Relations and Political Theory It is divided into three sections the first focuses predominantly on the crisis at the heart of political institutions the second considers crises in political action using several international cases and the third emphasises crises within political theorisation The afterword demonstrates the significance of each of these in questioning whether or not politics is in crisis This volume offers an engaging read for academics and practitioners alike as well as anyone interested in the dangers of democratic deficit the challenges to political transformation and the difficulties of developing systems of governance in Europe and beyond Intergovernmental Organisations and Security Sector Reform David Murray Law, David Law, 2007 Intergovernmental organisations IGOs play a crucial role in security sector reform and governance SSR G In virtually all instances of recent and current SSR programme delivery IGOs have either led the SSR effort or supported the lead provided by other actors How this role is played is of vital importance for the prospects of fostering durable security and development in a wide range of countries This volume looks at a selection of organisations that have been in the forefront of SSR activity or that have the potential for significantly developing their SSR agendas in the future These IGOs are the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development OECD the European Union EU the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation NATO the Organisation for Security and Co operation in Europe OSCE the Council of Europe CoE the Economic Organisation of West African States ECOWAS the World Bank WB and the International Monetary Fund IMF This year s volume is divided into four parts conceptual issues case studies on how IGOs have approached SSR in programme areas that are particularly representative of their overall action case studies on the way various actors primarily but not exclusively

IGOs have worked with each other in implementing SSR and supporting its implementation and conclusions drawn from the various case studies as well as policy recommendations for future IGO work in the area of SSR G The Routledge Handbook of Civil-military Relations Thomas C. Bruneau, Florina Cristiana Matei, 2013 The Routledge Handbook of Civil Military Relations not only fills this important lacuna but offers an up to date comparative analysis which identifies three essential components in civil military relations 1 democratic civilian control 2 operational effectiveness and 3 the efficiency of the security institutions This Handbook will be essential reading for students and practitioners in the fields of civil military relations

Afghanistan Geoffrey Hayes, Mark Sedra, 2009-08-04 Many have questioned the wisdom of the international intervention in Afghanistan in light of the escalation of violence and instability in the country in the past few years Particularly uncertain are Canadians who have been inundated with media coverage of an increasingly dirty war in southern Afghanistan one in which Canadians are at the frontline and suffering heavy casualties However the conflict is only one aspect of Afghanistan's complicated and incomplete political economic and security transition In Afghanistan Transition under Threat leading Afghanistan scholars and practitioners paint a full picture of the situation in Afghanistan and the impact of international and particularly Canadian assistance They review the achievements of the reconstruction process and outline future challenges focusing on key issues like the narcotics trade the Pakistan Afghanistan bilateral relationship the Taliban led insurgency and continuing endemic poverty This collection provides new insight into the nature and state of Afghanistan's post conflict transition and illustrates the consequences of failure Co published with the Centre for International Governance Innovation
