At the Intersection of Disability and Drama John Michael Sefel, Amanda Slamcik Lassetter, Jill Summerville, 2021-04-02 Cripples ain't supposed to be happy sings Anita Hollander balancing on her single leg and grinning broadly This moment from her multi award winning one woman show Still Standing captures the essence of this theatre anthology. Hollander and nineteen other playwright performers craftily subvert and smash stereotypes about how those within the disability community should look, think and behave. Utilizing the often conflicting tools of Critical Disability Studies and Medical Humanities, these plays and their accompanying essays approach disability as a vast intersectional demographic which ties individuals together less by whatever impairment, difference or non normative condition they experience and more by their daily need to navigate a world that wasn't built for them. From race, gender and sexuality to education, dating and pandemics, these plays reveal there is no aspect of human life that does not in some way intersect with disability.
