Seeking the White Root Cinda Wombles Pettigrew, Robyn D. Warner, 1998 The Publishers Weekly ,2005

Witnessing Australian Stories Kelly Jean Butler, 2017-07-28 This book is about how Australians have responded to stories about suffering and injustice in Australia presented in a range of public media including literature history films and television Those who have responded are both ordinary and prominent Australians politicians writers and scholars All have sought to come to terms with Australia s history by responding empathetically to stories of its marginalized citizens Drawing upon international scholarship on collective memory public history testimony and witnessing this book represents a cultural history of contemporary Australia It examines the forms of witnessing that dominated Australian public culture at the turn of the millennium Since the late 1980s witnessing has developed in Australia in response to the increasingly audible voices of indigenous peoples migrants and more recently asylum seekers As these voices became public they posed a challenge not only to scholars and politicians but also most importantly to ordinary citizens When former Prime Minister Kevin Rudd delivered his historic apology to Australia s indigenous peoples in February 2008 he performed an act of collective witnessing that affirmed the testimony and experiences of Aboriginal Australians The phenomenon of witnessing became crucial not only to the recognition and reparation of past injustices but to efforts to create a more cosmopolitan Australia in the present This is a vital addition to Transaction s critically acclaimed Memory and Narrative series Independent Publisher ,1999

An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion James Jupp, 2018-04-10 An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion presents Australian traditions myths and legends in an understanding but often critical light in the belief that such devices have often been used by interested parties and even governments to maintain social solidarity and to mould a very complex people into a coherent and obedient whole Australia is not and never has been an equal society It has not always been a peaceful and tolerant society but it is more so than most other states and especially many of those sending immigrants It is not a perfect democracy Many have been mistreated and even persecuted but that most of those suffering at present are either indigenous or refugees should not be a cause of indifference Australians may be suspicious of foreigners and social and political deviants But they have passed a whole series of reforming laws since the Federation in 1901 not all of which have been as racist as the White Australia policy An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion attempts to get a little bit closer to the truth of two hundred years of creating a liveable society in what was a remote and unknown part of the world Vulnerability and Resilience Jione Havea, 2020-01-28 In Vulnerability and Resilience vulnerability is not the final word Rather resilience provides the cutting edge and living breath in the stories of subjects who are vulnerable And they have many stories stories of being trapped in bodies teachings and or situations that make them and others like them vulnerable to discrimination hatred and rejection stories of being trapped because of their bodies theologies and or cultures and stories of being trapped for no good reason For subjects who are vulnerable life is like a maze of traps and stories of resilience keep them going The contributors to Vulnerability and Resilience refuse to be trapped At the intersection of body and liberation theologies they tell their stories in the hope that they will expose cultures that make individuals and communities vulnerable and that those stories will encourage vulnerable subjects to be resilient and bring change to theological institutions that conserve vulnerability Because of the location of the contributors the Americas Africa Asia Europe Caribbean and Oceania this book is a testimony that vulnerability is present all over the world and that resilience is a liberating alternative Looking for Elizabeth Helen

Sarwal,2017-05-03 This book analyses the metaphysical and poetical notions and the processes of rooting into a culture and routing out of a culture in the context of South Asian diaspora in Australia These diasporic narratives are often characterised by bifurcated and dislocated identities that exist in a liminal space in between two identities two cultures and two histories Yet home remains through acts of imagination remembering and re creation an important reference point The author argues that a clearer notion of politics of location is required to distinguish between the different kinds of dislocation the immigrants suffer both psychologically and sociologically The diaspora in Australia is an under studied topic and this book fills a lacuna in South Asian diaspora studies by analysing and calling upon a wide range of works in this field from historical anthropological sociological cultural and literary studies The 100 Most Important Sporting Events in American History Lew
