Selected Burns for Young Readers Robert Burns,2002-02 A Selection of Books for Young Readers in the Indianapolis Public Library Indianapolis Public Library,1888 Growing and Knowing: A Selection Guide for Children's Literature

Mary Trim,2005-04-25 No detailed description available for Growing and Knowing A Selection Guide for Children s Literature Report on the Activities in the ... Congress of the Select Committee on Children, Youth, and Families, House of Representatives ... (pursuant to Rule Xi (1) (d)) United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Children, Youth, and Families,1989

Fire Safety United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Children, Youth, and Families,1993 This hearing chaired by Representative Patricia Schroeder was held to find ways to reduce the number of deaths and injuries that result from fires Testimony or prepared statements were given by Representatives Schroeder Michael Bilirakis Romano Mazzoli and Curt Weldon as well as nine other individuals involved in fire safety issues including professional fire fighters members of fire safety groups and concerned citizens It was noted that the United States has one of the highest per capita fire death rates in the world with roughly 6 000 fire deaths each year Young children are at great risk of death and injury due to fire burns with nearly 1 400 child fatalities and 14 000 serious injuries each year due to fires The monetary costs of fires are tremendous with over 50 billion spent each year on property losses medical and insurance costs fire department expenditures and fire protection costs Careless smoking and playing with fire cause the most harm to children Poverty and poor living conditions increase the risk of fire death and injury Smoke detectors and other safety devices greatly reduce the chances of dying in a fire Despite the effectiveness of such safety devices more preventive and educational measures are needed MDM

Crossing Borders Hilary Rouse-Amadi,2018-10-08 Hilary Rouse Amadi is a poet teacher and academic The format of this collection of poems reflects the interconnections between these aspects of her creativity It was the playwright Sir Tom Stoppard who recently commented that our troubled times can overwhelm the writer because there is simply too much to write about and respond to On offer on these pages is poetry of ideas narrative poetry lyrical poetry where the personal is also political and located in the wider context that is the public domain Venture on a journey with the poet that references some thirty five countries acknowledging cultural differences but emphasising what we have in common Local and global need not conflict when we recognise along with the late Jo Cox MP that what we have in common is greater than that which divides us

Teaching Children to Read: Reports of the subgroups National Reading Panel (U.S.),2000 The Children's Literature Selection Handbook, K-8 Christie Kaaland,2025-08-21 Offering future school librarians teachers and working librarians an alternative to lengthier textbooks on children s literature this engaging book introduces readers to the most important genres and current conversations in the field while leaving them time to read children s literature directly As school librarian and teacher certification programs become more abridged students require succinct textbooks that still provide a valuable introduction to the field Working librarians need reference books that allow them to make good selections for their collections Students and professionals will appreciate The Children's Literature Selection Handbook K-8 because it offers a needed overview of the field while allowing for plenty of time to read children's literature Author Christie Kaaland's conversational tone speaks directly to readers and the book offers students a pathway to engage with literature directly and effectively scaffold their learning Beginning with an introduction to standard literary fiction genres including a discussion of literature trends and children's reading interests and needs the chapters turn to the most important genres fiction biography folk literature picture books informational texts poetry and graphic novels A focus on book series a deep discussion of graphic novels the inclusion of global literature and review sources for selection and information on publishers and the publishing industry set this timely book apart from others in the field Reader voices add perspective and charm This compact and engaging book is the perfect companion to the vast wealth of children's literature that future teachers and school librarians will read during their professional preparation and share with children and youth as working librarians The English Reader; Or, A Selection of Pieces in Prose and Poetry H. Literature , 1906 The Reader , 1927 Researching Children's Perspectives Ann Lewis, Geoff Lindsay, 1999-12-16

This is a book which I will return to over time It carries a powerful and empowering message about the task of researching children's views It deserves to find an automatic place in staffroom libraries I happily recommend it Support for Learning The 1990s have been marked by a growing emphasis in various professional contexts on obtaining the views of clients including children This position is an international one shared across the developed world and encapsulated in the UN Convention on the rights of the child This book addresses the issues and practicalities surrounding the obtaining of children's views particularly in the research context The book takes a deliberately and explicitly pluralist stance Its distinctiveness rests on the scrutiny of methodological issues pertaining to the collection of children's views and practical applications The book is structured around two main sections Section 1 examines five aspects of theoretical and conceptual issues ethical issues and codes of conduct children's rights the legal perspective developmental dimensions and sociological issues Section 2 illustrates these aspects by focusing on methods and applications in obtaining children's views in specific projects The book is aimed at researchers and graduate students in psychology social sciences education health and law It will also be of value to a range of professionals involved in eliciting children's views e g psychologists teachers social workers medical workers and the police
