Selected Critical Writings:

Selected Critical Writings David Herbert Lawrence, 1998 A critic must be able to feel the impact of a work of art in all its complexity and force To do so he must be a man of force and complexity himself A critic must be emotionally alive in every fibre intellectually capable and skilful in essential logic and then morally very honest These comments by D H Lawrence are as close a description as any of himself as a critic They come from his essay on fellow novelist John Galsworthy and there are many other pieces on novels and novelists in this selection But Lawrence's range of genres extends to poetry and plays and paintings and his critical writing encompasses an enormous variety of subjects from Aeschylus and the Apocalypse to symbolism and syphilis for his interests are philosophical psychological religious moral sociological historical and cultural as well as literary and artistic This selection is a treasure trove of thought adventures by one of literature's liveliest critical spirits Selected Critical Writings of George Santayana George Santayana, 1968

Richard Aldington: Selected Critical Writings, 1928-1960 Richard Aldington, 1970 Alister Kershaw Aldington's closest friend from 1947 until his death in 1962 here presents ten trenchant and refreshing essays not previously published in book form by perhaps the last of the great literary critics to come to grips with the jubilant illiteracy of these times In his highly personal and reflective Introduction Kershaw discusses Aldington's deep involvement in life the catholicity of his interests and his considerable erudition which gave his writing an unusual quality of spontaneity and eloquence Selected critical writings,

1928-1960, ed Richard Aldington, Selected Critical Writings, 1998 Selected Critical Writings George Santayana, 1968 Liu Zaifu: Selected Critical Essays Zaifu Liu, 2021-06-17 Liu Zaifu is a name that has already been ingrained within contemporary Chinese literary history This landmark volume presents Anglophone readers with Liu's profound reflections on Chinese literature and culture at different times The essays collected here demonstrate Liu's historical experience and trajectory as an exiled Chinese intellectual who persistently safeguards the individuality and the autonomy of literature refusing to succumb to political manipulation Liu's theory of literary subjectivity has opened ways for Chinese writers to thrive and innovate His panoramic view not only unravels the intricate interplay between literature and politics but also firmly regards the transcendental value of literature as a significant ground to subvert revolutionary dogmatism and criticize Chinese modernity Rather than drawing upon the existing paradigm he reinvents his own unique theoretical conceptions in order to exile the borrowed gods Selected Critical Writings; Ed. by N Henfrey George original narrative of what it meant to be a Victorian novelist Easily dismissed at the beginning of the century as hacks who pandered to the ignorant or indolent novelists by the end of Victoria's reign could be esteemed among the greatest of artists Between these extremes stretches a century of ideological contention between alternative representations of authorship Deane brings new attention in his account to the trends in publishing and the expanding market surrounding Victorian literature such as the new modes of production arguments over copyright legislation and revisions of the criteria of periodical criticism Combining literary sociology and close readings The Making of the Victorian Novelist offers an innovative history of the material pressures and rhetorical struggles that produced and ultimately shattered the Victorians' understanding of their great novelists Critical Reception of Arundhati Roy Urvi Sharma, 2024-12-09 In the swirling landscape of contemporary literature Arundhati Roy stands as the monsoon rains equally loved and disparaged This book delves into the kaleidoscope of reactions to Roy's writings that mediate her identity as a writer activist and celebrity in the public sphere Her life in slums job as an aerobics instructor huge publishing advance Booker win sedition charges silver jewellery choice to go to Dantewada forests and decision to refuse to model for Gap continue to mediate how her writings are viewed and read by the reading public Understanding the cultural politics of this sense making allows the scope to see how a wide variety of factors prompt the circulation reception and contextualisation of literary writings in the public sphere
