Eros, Eros, Eros Odysseas Elytis, 1998 Olga Broumas has chosen poems from the full range of Odysseas Elytis's Nobel Prize winning poetry including his early work when he was associated with the Surrealists to the entirety of his long poem The Little Mariner as well as a previously unavailable selection of his last poems written shortly before his death in 1996 Elytis himself offers the best description of his work If a separate personal Paradise exists for each of us mine must be irreparably planted with trees of words which the wind silvers like poplars by people who see their confiscated justice given back and by birds that even in the midst of the truth of death insist on singing in Greek and saying eros eros eros Around the World in 80 Books David Damrosch, 2021-11-16 A transporting and illuminating voyage around the globe through classic and modern literary works that are in conversation with one another and with the world around them Featured in the Chicago Tribune's Great 2021 Fall Book Preview One of Smithsonian Magazine's Ten Best Books About Travel of 2021 Inspired by Jules Verne's hero Phileas Fogg David Damrosch chair of Harvard University's department of comparative literature and founder of Harvard's Institute for World Literature set out to counter a pandemic's restrictions on travel by exploring eighty exceptional books from around the globe Following a literary itinerary from London to Venice Tehran and points beyond and via authors from Woolf and Dante to Nobel Prize winners Orhan Pamuk Wole Soyinka Mo Yan and Olga Tokarczuk he explores how these works have shaped our idea of the world and the ways in which the world bleeds into literature To chart the expansive landscape of world literature today Damrosch explores how writers live in two very different worlds the world of their personal experience and the world of books that have enabled great writers to give shape and meaning to their lives In his literary cartography Damrosch includes compelling contemporary works as well as perennial classics hard bitten crime fiction as well as haunting works of fantasy and the formative tales that introduce us as children to the world we re entering Taken together these eighty titles offer us fresh perspective on enduring problems from the social consequences of epidemics to the rising inequality that Thomas More designed Utopia to combat as well as the patriarchal structures within and against which many of these books heroines have to struggle from the work of Murasaki Shikibu a millennium ago to Margaret Atwood today Around the World in 80 Books is a global invitation to look beyond ourselves and our surroundings and to see our world and its literature in new ways

Contemporary Gay American Poets and Playwrights Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2003-06-30 Gay presence is nothing new to American verse and theater Homoerotic themes are discernible in American poetry as early as the 19th century and identifiably gay characters appeared on the American stage more than 70 years ago But aside from a few notable exceptions gay artists of earlier generations felt compelled to avoid sexual candor in their writings Conversely most contemporary gay poets and playwrights are free from such constraints and have created a remarkable body of work This reference is a guide to their creative achievements Alphabetically arranged entries present 62 contemporary gay American poets and dramatists While the majority of included writers are younger artists who came of age in the post Stonewall U S some are older authors whose work has continued or persisted into recent decades A number of these writers are well known including Edward Albee Harvey Fierstein and Allen Ginsberg Others such as Alan Bowne Timothy Liu and Robert O Hara merit wider recognition

The Beat Movement was one of the most radical and innovative literary and arts movements of the 20th century and the history of the Beat Movement is still being written in the early years of the 21st century Unlike other kinds of literary and artistic movements the Beat Movement is self-perpetuating After the 1950s generation headlined by Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg and William S Burroughs a new generation arose in the 1960s led by writers such as Diane Wakoski Anne Waldman and poets from the East Side Scene In the 1970s and 1980s writers from the Poetry Project at St Mark's Church and contributors to World magazine continued the movement The 1980s and 1990s Language Movement saw itself as an outgrowth and progression of previous Beat aesthetics Today poets and writers in San Francisco still gather at City Lights Bookstore and in Boulder at the Jack Kerouac School of Disembodied Poetics and continue the movement It is now a postmodern movement and probably would be unrecognizable to the earliest Beats It may even be in the process of finally shedding the name Beat But the Movement continues The Historical Dictionary of the Beat Movement covers the movement's history through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross-referenced entries on significant people themes critical issues and the most significant novels poems and volumes of poetry and prose that have formed the Beat canon This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Beat Movement Select elegies of Propertius Sextus Propertius, 1885 Collected Critical Writings Geoffrey Hill, 2009 The Collected Critical Writings gathers more than forty years of Hill's published criticism in a revised final form and also adds much new work It will serve as the canonical volume of criticism by Hill the pre-eminent poet-critic whom A N Wilson has called probably the best writer alive in verse or in prose In his criticism Hill ranges widely investigating both poets including Jonson Dryden Hopkins Whitman Eliot and Yeats and prose writers such as Tyndale Clarendon Hobbes Burton Emerson and F H Bradley He is also steeped in the historical context political poetic and religious of the writers he studies Most importantly he brings texts and contexts into new and telling relations neither reducing texts to the circumstances of their utterance nor imagining that they can float free of them A number of the essays have already established themselves as essential reading on particular subjects such as his analysis of Vaughan's The Night his discussion of Gurney's poetry and his critical account of The Oxford English Dictionary Others confront the problems of language and the nature of value directly as in Our Word is Our Bond Language Suffering and Value and Poetry and Value In all his criticism Hill reveals literature to be an essential arena of civic intelligence The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1906
