Locating Right to the City in the Global South Tony Samara, Shenjing He, Guo Chen, 2013-01-04 Despite the fact that virtually all urban growth is occurring and will continue to occur in the cities of the Global South the conceptual tools used to study cities are distilled disproportionately from research on the highly developed cities of the Global North With urban inequality widely recognized as central to many of the most pressing challenges facing the world there is a need for a deeper understanding of cities of the South on their own terms Locating Right to the City in the Global South marks an innovative and far reaching effort to document and make sense of urban transformations across a range of cities as well as the conflicts and struggles for social justice these are generating The volume contains empirically rich theoretically informed case studies focused on the social spatial and political dimensions of urban inequality in the Global South Drawing from scholars with extensive fieldwork experience this volume covers sixteen cities in fourteen countries across a belt stretching from Latin America to Africa and the Middle East and into Asia Central to what binds these cities are deeply rooted complex and dynamic processes of social and spatial division that are being actively reproduced These cities are not so much fracturing as they are being divided by governance practices informed by local histories and political contestation and refracted through or infused by market based approaches to urban development Through a close examination of these practices and resistance to them this volume provides perspectives on neoliberalism and right to the city that advance our understanding of urbanism in the Global South In mapping the relationships between space politics and populations the volume draws attention to variations shaped by local circumstances while simultaneously elaborating a distinctive transnational Southern urbanism It provides indepth research on a range of practical and policy oriented issues from housing and slum redevelopment to building democratic cities that include participation by lower income and other marginal groups It will be of interest to students and practitioners alike studying Urban Studies Globalization and Development Locating Right to the City in the Global South Tony Roshan Samara, Shenjing He, Guo Chen, 2013 Drawing from scholars with extensive fieldwork experience this volume covers sixteen cities in fourteen countries across a belt stretching from Latin America to Africa and the Middle East and into Asia Central to what binds these cities are deeply rooted complex and dynamic processes of social and spatial division that are being actively reproduced These cities are not so much fracturing as they are being divided by governance practices informed by local histories and political contestation and refracted through or infused by market based approaches to urban development Through a close examination of these practices and resistance to them this volume provides perspectives on neoliberalism and right to the city that advance our understanding of urbanism in the Global South

Infrastructure and Development Davinder Kaur Gill, 2011 Development-Induced Displacement in India and China Florence Padovani, 2016-08-29 The world seems to have recently discovered India and China as major players in Asia and political and economic connections between the two countries are rapidly growing Beyond the fashionable phenomenon

the two countries have much in common and many shared experiences Both are developing countries with dynamic economies focused on lifting their people out of poverty There are also differences as well as India is a democracy while China is an autocratic state and the speed of economic growth is much higher in India This collection provides a comparative analysis of development induced migration in India and China caused by urbanization and dam construction The contributors include scholars from both countries working in both academia and consultancy positions Shanghai and Mumbai Tapati Mukhopadhyay,2001 With reference to India report of survey carried out by Society for Participatory Research in Asia

Cities in a World Economy Saskia Sassen,2018-05-30 Cities in a World Economy examines the emergence of global cities as a new social formation As sites of rapid and widespread developments in the areas of finance information and people global cities lie at the core of the major processes of globalization The book features a cross disciplinary approach to urban sociology using global examples and discusses the impact of global processes on the social structure of cities The Fifth Edition reflects the most current data available and explores recent debates such as the role of cities in mitigating environmental problems the global refugee crisis Brexit and the rise of Donald Trump in the United States The Changing Role of Schools in Asian Societies John Chi-Kin Lee,2007-12-05 Walk into a classroom in Tokyo New York London or Rotterdam and the similarities in structure activity purpose and style will outweigh differences in language dress and ethnic characteristics Learning is regulated and rationed teaching is a process or one way transmission of knowledge students need to be docile and conformist assessment needs to sift and sort the bright from the not so bright and rewards will be given to those who successfully negotiate this regime But are these the kinds of places that can meet the needs of the net generation The Changing Role of Schools in Asian Societies is concerned with the debate about the nature of modern schooling in Asia Traditionally schools are historical constructions reflecting the social economic and political needs of the societies that invest in them As Asia faces the challenges posed by the knowledge economy its schools have taken on a new and quite different importance This informative book outlines the broad policy contexts in which these transformations are taking place and the practical strategies that are needed to meet this objective The authors argue that the future of Asian societies depends on a transformation that requires a fundamental restructuring of schools as we know them while maintaining their long held cultural values This valuable insight provides an overview of educational issues in Asian societies establishes a broad theoretical framework in which these issues can be understood contextualizes issues by providing country case studies acknowledges the important role of culture influencing educational priorities It should be of interest to all those working in education policy and comparative education Prediction of Stock Market Index Movements with Machine Learning Nazif AYYILDIZ,2023-12-16 The book titled Prediction of Stock Market Index Movements with Machine Learning focuses on the performance of machine learning methods in forecasting the future movements of stock market indexes and identifying the most advantageous methods that can be used across different stock exchanges In this context applications have been conducted on both developed and emerging market stock exchanges The stock market indexes of developed countries such as NYSE 100 NIKKEI 225 FTSE 100 CAC 40 DAX 30 FTSE MIB TSX and the stock market indexes of emerging countries such as SSE BOVESPA RTS NIFTY 50 IDX IPC and BIST 100 were selected The movement directions of these stock market indexes were predicted using decision trees random forests k nearest neighbors naive Bayes logistic regression support vector machines and artificial neural networks methods Daily dataset from 01 01 2012 to 31 12 2021 along with technical indicators were used as input data for analysis According to the results obtained it was determined that artificial neural networks were the most effective method during the examined period Alongside artificial neural networks logistic regression and support vector machines methods were found to predict the movement direction of all indexes with an accuracy of over 70% Additionally it was noted that while artificial neural networks were identified as the best method they did not necessarily achieve the highest accuracy for all indexes In this context it was established that the performance of the examined methods varied among countries and indexes but did not differ based on the development levels of the countries As a conclusion artificial neural networks logistic regression and support vector machines methods are recommended as the most advantageous approaches for predicting stock market index movements A History of Future Cities Daniel

policy and everyday practice      A TEXTBOOK OF URBAN PLANNING AND GEOGRAPHY SHARMA, SAMEER, 2020-11-01

Generally textbooks on urban geography and urban planning are based on ideas laid out in the west and are unable to explicitly connect those ideas to the way Indians experience their cities This gap is addressed in this book by reconceptualising Indian urban studies The reconceptualisation is done by dissecting western theories concepts paradigms and principles and practices and placing them alongside how Indians experience their urban landscapes Such a comparative analysis allows readers to break from their past understandings of the structure and dynamics of Indian cities as well as enable researchers to make exploratory hypotheses The book will empower students to craft and implement new approaches unconstrained by orthodox theories and biases Primarily intended for the students of Geography and Urban Planning the book covers the evolution of urban structures and dynamics of settlements in India largely after India's Independence There are seven chapters in the book First three chapters describe and explain the evolution of Indian settlements up to the present The next four chapters focus on regions urban planning urban governance and the social landscape of Indian cities Each chapter ends with a set of short and long answer questions KEY FEATURES Large coverage of the syllabi prescribed in Indian academic institutions Strategically organised text of each chapter for the ease of learning Abundant case studies in each chapter Chapter end short answer long answer and fill in the blank type exercise problems Target Audience B Arch BA B Sc Geography MA M Sc Geography      Urban Design Alex Krieger, William S. Saunders, 2009-01-01 Collects essays written on the establishment and cultivation of urban design as a distinct architectural and planning practice      Calcutta Geographical Review, 1998      Designing Emerging Markets Giaime Botti, 2023-05-22 This book offers a unique glance into the process of globalisation of the architectural practice during the last three decades through the lenses of innovative methodologies in architectural history based on quantitative data Focusing on the golden age of globalisation 1990-2019 it investigates the transnational work of more than one thousand architectural firms of different business models from Europe North America and the Asia Pacific in a broad sample of emerging markets Mainland China South East Asia India the Persian Gulf Sub Saharan Africa Russia and Kazakhstan and Latin America In the book different thematic geographies are presented to explore the global scope of the contemporary profession examine significant projects and the structural conditions behind them and reveal the debates that such works generated Understanding the global agency of design firms in emerging markets also becomes a way to study different market conditions modes of production and architectural trends comparatively and to highlight the shifts that occurred in the profession over the last few decades The use of quantitative methodologies produces a novel and updated narrative on contemporary architecture in emerging markets grounded in quantitative data rather than in preassumptions and purely qualitative interpretations Richly illustrated this book is further enhanced by an ample set of maps graphs and tables to visualise data better      Seeking Middle Ground Sanjoy Chakravorty, Amitendu Palit, 2019-07-15 Land is a subject of great conflict and debate in India Over the last decade it has influenced electoral verdicts and political fortunes and remains one of the most persistent challenges facing the nation This book argues that the focus on politics and land acquisition has deflected attention from the possibilities of market oriented approaches that are becoming relevant because of booming but diverse land markets It aims to nudge the discussion towards a better understanding of the complementary strengths of state and market led approaches to the many problems of land in rural and urban India Featuring original essays from leading analysts this book examines the agrarian crisis and urbanization laws and policies displacement and compensation factories and housing cooperation and conflict and other vital issues affecting land at the regional and national level These multiple lines of enquiry make this book a critical and objective commentary on contemporary India and its ongoing economic socio political and legal struggles with land The Urban Climate

Challenge Craig Johnson,Noah Toly,Heike Schroeder,2015-02-20 Drawing upon a variety of empirical and theoretical perspectives The Urban Climate Challenge provides a hands on perspective about the political and technical challenges now facing cities and transnational urban networks in the global climate regime Bringing together experts working in the fields of global environmental governance urban sustainability and climate change this volume explores the ways in which cities transnational urban networks and global policy institutions are repositioning themselves in relation to this changing global policy environment Focusing on both Northern and Southern experience across the globe three questions that have strong bearing on the ways in which we understand and assess the changing relationship between cities and global climate system are examined The Urban Climate Challenge will be of interest to scholars of urban climate policy global environmental governance and climate change It will be of interest to readers more generally interested in the ways in which cities are now addressing the inter related challenges of sustainable urban growth and global climate change Chapter 9 and Chapter 11 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3 0 license https://s3.us-west-2.amazonaws.com/tandfbis-rt/files/docs/Open+Access+Chapters+9781138776883\_oachapter11.pdf

Maximilian Mayer,Emilian Kavalski,Marina Rudyak,Xin Zhang,2024-10-22 This innovative Routledge Handbook sheds light on the complex and transformative nature of Global China prompting a re evaluation of existing theories on global and regional dynamics It encourages theoretical innovation methodological reflection and analytical transformation providing new avenues for critical engagement with China s global interactions The chapters propose three key commitments for the study of Global China Advocating for diverse viewpoints and non binary frameworks employing nuanced analysis to understand Beijing s transnational relations and utilizing alternative methodological approaches to explore different trajectories for China in international affairs The Handbook also identifies and avoids epistemic traps that hinder the understanding of Global China such as othering and strategic narcissism It suggests five analytical frameworks related to relationality global capitalist processes language and discourse power planetary scale modernization and experimentalism to guide future research By adopting these frameworks researchers can gain a deeper understanding of the multifaceted factors shaping Global China within the broader global context of cooperation competition and crisis Introduction Chapter 21 and Epilogue of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Inconvenient Generation Minhua Ling, 2019-10-22 After three decades of massive rural to urban migration in China a burgeoning population of over 35 million second generation migrants living in its cities poses a challenge to socialist modes of population management and urban governance In The Inconvenient Generation Minhua Ling offers the first longitudinal study of these migrant youth from middle school to the labor market in the years after the Shanghai municipal government partially opened its public school system to them Drawing on multi-sited ethnographic data Ling follows the trajectories of dozens of children coming of age at a time of competing economic and social imperatives and its everyday ramifications on their sense of identity educational outcomes and citizenship claims Under policies and practices of segmented inclusion they are inevitably funneled through the school system toward a life of manual labor Illuminating the aspirations and strategies of these young men and women Ling captures their experiences against the backdrop of a reemergent global Shanghai

Celebrate Main Coursebook 8 , Rising Seas Vivien Gornitz, 2013-03-19 The Earth's climate is already warming due to increased concentrations of human-produced greenhouse gases in the atmosphere and the specter of rising sea level is one of global warming's most far-reaching threats Sea level will keep rising long after greenhouse gas emissions have ceased because of the delay in penetration of surface warming to the ocean depths and because of the slow dissipation of excess atmospheric carbon dioxide Adopting a long perspective that interprets sea level changes both underway and expected in the near future Vivien Gornitz completes a highly relevant and necessary study of an unprecedented age in Earth's history Gornitz consults past climate archives to help better anticipate future developments and prepare for them more effectively She focuses on several understudied historical events including the Paleocene-Eocene Thermal Anomaly the Messinian salinity crisis the rapid filling of the Black Sea which may have inspired the story of Noah's flood and the Storrega submarine slide an incident possibly connected to a sea level occurrence roughly 8,000 years old By examining dramatic variations in past sea level and climate Gornitz concretizes the potential consequences of rapid human-induced warming She builds historical precedent for coastal hazards associated with a higher ocean level such as increased damage from storm surge flooding even if storm characteristics remain unchanged Citing the examples of Rotterdam London New York City and other forward-looking urban centers that are effectively preparing for higher sea level Gornitz also delineates the difficult economic and political choices of curbing carbon emissions while underscoring through past geological analysis the urgent need to do so
