make a lifetime of memories You ll have it on your bookshelf for years to come Absolute Shanghai Shanghai Lü you ju,2009 Transforming China W. Zhang,1999-12-07 Provides an insider s examination of China s economic reform and its political implications The book sheds new light on the Chinese approach to reform including its dual goal dynamic gradualism and reform leadership It assesses the vast social and political changes set forth by the reform and the international ramifications of China s rise Branding Chinese Mega-Cities Per Olof Berg,Emma Bj_rner,2014-04-25 This interdisciplinary book details the economic cultural and social background of the development of Chinese mega cities as well as presenting the mechanisms of governance and urban growth strategies Therein the main discussion centres on the cont

Deciphering Chinese School Leadership Allan Walker,Haiyan Qian,2017-10-23 With existing educational leadership models and theories being predominantly western influenced this book aims to provide more insight into school leadership in China It pioneers building research and practice informed knowledge and unravels the complexities that characterize the scholarship context and practices of school leadership School leadership in China is presented through four sub purposes investigating how Chinese school leadership is conceptualized in the international and Chinese literature exploring the shifting context within which Chinese school leaders enact their leadership and examining key policies that have shaped the practice of leader development extending the understandings about the complexities of work lives of Chinese school leaders and further locating indigenous understandings of Chinese school leadership in the political and socio cultural context of contemporary China and the theoretical and conceptual context of international school leadership This text will be particularly useful to international education researchers with focus on educational leadership comparative education education policy and education in China The University of Chicago Magazine ,1926 Remaking the Chinese City Joseph W. Esherick,2000-01-01 In China today skyscrapers tower over ancient temples freeways deliver lines of cars and tour buses to imperial palaces cinema houses compete with old theaters featuring Peking Opera The disparity evidenced in the contemporary Chinese cityscape can be traced to the early decades of the twentieth century when government elites sought to transform cities into a new world that would be at once modern and distinctly Chinese Remaking the Chinese City aims to capture the full diversity of recent Chinese urbanism by examining the modernist transformations of China s cities in the first half of the twentieth century Collecting in one place some of the most interesting and exciting new work on Chinese urban history this volume presents thirteen essays discussing ten Chinese cities the commercial and industrial center of Shanghai the old capital Beijing the southern coastal city of Canton the interior s Chengdu the tourist city of Hangzhou the utopian New Capital built in Manchuria during the Japanese occupation the treaty port of Tianjin the Nationalists capital in Nanjing and temporary wartime capitals of Wuhan and Chongqing Unlike past treatments of early twentieth century China which characterize the period as one of failure and decay the contributors to this volume describe an exciting world in constant and fundamental change During this time the Chinese city was remade to accommodate parks and police paved roads and public spaces Rickshaws trolleys and buses allowed the growth of new downtowns Department stores theaters newspapers and modern advertising nourished a new urban identity Sanitary regulations and traffic laws were enforced and modern media and transport permitted unprecedented freedoms Yet despite their fondness for things Western and modern early urban planners envisioned cities that would lead the Chinese nation and preserve Chinese tradition The very desire for modernity led to the construction of a visible and accessible national past and the imagining of a distinctive national future In their investigation of the national capitals of the period the essays show how cities were reshaped to represent and serve the nation To promote tourism traditions were invented and recycled for the pleasure and edification of new middle class and foreign consumers of culture Abundantly illustrated with maps and photographs Remaking the Chinese City presents the best and most current scholarship on modern Chinese cities Its thoroughness and detailed scholarship will appeal to the specialist while its clarity and scope will engage the general reader Contributors Michael Tsin on Canton Ruth Rogaski and Brett Sheehan on Tianjin David Buck on Changchun Kristin Stapleton on Chengdu Liping Wang on Hangzhou Madeleine Dong on Beijing Charles Musgrove on Nanjing Stephen MacKinnon on Wuhan Lee MacIsaac on Chongqing and Jeffrey Wasserstrom and David Strand with concluding essays

Queer China Hongwei Bao, 2020-05-11 This book analyses queer cultural production in contemporary China to map the broad social transformations in gender sexuality and desire It examines queer literature and visual cultures in China's post Mao and postsocialist era to show how these diverse cultural forms and practices not only function as context specific and culturally sensitive forms of social activism but also produce distinct types of gender and sexual subjectivities unique to China's postsocialist conditions From poetry to papercutting art from comrade gay literature to girls love fan fiction from lesbian films to activist documentaries and from a drag show in Shanghai to a public performance of a same sex wedding in Beijing the book reveals a queer China in all its ideological complexity and creative energy Empirically rich and methodologically eclectic Queer China skilfully weaves together historical and archival research textual and discourse analysis along with interviews and ethnography Breaking new ground and bringing a non Western perspective to the fore this transdisciplinary work contributes to multiple academic fields including literary and cultural studies media and communication studies film and screen studies contemporary art theatre and performance studies gender and sexuality studies China Asia and Global South studies cultural history and cultural geography political theory and the study of social movements

Administrative Region in Its First Decade Joseph Y. S. CHENG, 2007-09-01 This book with 24 essays will appeal to local and international readers interested in Hong Kong The latter include the international financial and business community researchers in Asian Studies journalists and educated tourists Published by City University of Hong Kong Press The American Asian Review , 1993 Shanghai's Dancing World Andrew David, 2010-11-03 Drawing upon a unique and untapped reservoir of newspapers magazines novels government documents photographs and illustrations this book traces the origin pinnacle and ultimate demise of a commercial dance industry in Shanghai between the end of the First World War and the early years of the People's Republic of China Delving deep into the world of cabarets nightclubs and elite ballrooms that arose in the city in the 1920s and peaked in the 1930s the book assesses how and why Chinese society incorporated and transformed this westernized world of leisure and entertainment to suit its own tastes and interests Focusing on the jazzage nightlife of the city in its golden age the book examines issues of colonialism and modernity urban space sociability and sexuality and modern Chinese national identity formation in a tumultuous era of war and revolution Shanghai's Dancing World Andrew Field, 2010 It was thanks to its cabarets that Old Shanghai was called the Paris of the Orient No one has studied the rise and fall of those cabarets more extensively than Andrew Field His book is packed with fascinating information and attests on every page to his understanding of Shanghai's history LYNN PAN author of Sons of the Yellow Emperor The End of the Chinese Dream Gerard Lemos, 2012-07-30 Glossy television images of happy industrious and increasingly prosperous workers show a bright view of life in twenty first century China But behind the officially approved story is a different reality Preparing this book Gerard Lemos asked hundreds of Chinese men and women living in Chongqing an industrial mega city about their wishes and fears The lives they describe expose the myth of China's harmonious society Hundreds of millions of everyday people in China are beleaguered by immense social and health problems as well as personal family and financial anxieties while they watch their communities and traditions being destroyed Lemos investigates a China beyond the foreigners beaten track This is a revealing account of the thoughts and feelings of Chinese people regarding all facets of their lives from education to health care unemployment to old age politics to wealth Taken together the stories of these men and women bring to light a broken society one whose people are frustrated angry sad and often fearful about the circumstances of their lives The author considers the implications of these findings and analyzes how China's community and social problems threaten the ambitious nation's hopes for a prosperous and cohesive future Lemos explains why protests will continue and a divided and self serving leadership will not make people's dreams come true As China Goes, So Goes the World Karl Gerth, 2010-11-09 In this revelatory examination of the most overlooked force that is changing the face of China the Oxford historian and scholar of modern Asia Karl Gerth shows that as the Chinese consumer goes so goes the world While Americans and Europeans have become increasingly worried about China's competition for manufacturing jobs and energy resources they have overlooked an even bigger story China's rapid development of an American style consumer culture which is revolutionizing the lives of hundreds of millions of Chinese and has the potential to reshape the world This change is already well under way China has become the world's largest consumer of everything from automobiles to beer and has begun to adopt such consumer habits as living in large single occupancy homes shopping in gigantic malls and eating meat based diets served in fast food outlets Even rural Chinese long the laggards of consumerism have been buying refrigerators televisions mobile phones and larger houses in unprecedented numbers As China Goes So Goes the World reveals why we should all care about the everyday choices made by ordinary Chinese Taken together these seemingly small changes are deeper and more profound than the headline grabbing stories on military budgets carbon emissions or trade disputes
