Its premise is that political actors' identities frame how Canadian politics is thought told and done in turn Canadian politics as a set of ideas state institutions and decision making processes and civil society mobilizations does and redoes gender. Following the standard structure of mainstream introductory Canadian politics textbooks this handbook is divided into four sections: ideologies institutions civil society and public policy each of which contains several chapters on topics commonly taught in Canadian politics classes The originality of the handbook lies in its approach each chapter reviews the basics of a given topic from the perspective of gendered sexualized and other intersectional identities Such an approach makes the handbook the only one of its kind in Canadian Politics The Making and Re-Making of Public Law Jason NE Varuhas, Sarah Fulham-McQuillan, Eoin Carolan, 2025-04-17 This volume originates from the fourth Public Law Conference held in Dublin in 2022 Leading scholars and judges from across the common law world presented papers on the making and re making of public law across country studies historical studies and studies of contemporary and future issues The book has three broad categories of contribution country studies which consider the evolution of public law within a particular jurisdictional context historical studies which shed light on the foundations of public law and studies of contemporary and future issues namely populism COVID 19 protection of Indigenous peoples and the public private divide Quill & Quire ,1996
