The Korean Developmental State Kyung Mi Kim, 2020-04-25 This book analyzes from a historical comparative perspective the Korean economic development model the extent to which it has changed from its classical model and what constitutes its changes and continuity Unlike studies claims the dissolution of Korean developmentalism the book holds that the Korean state maintains its characteristics of state led capitalism despite significant changes in policies and instruments rather than converge toward an AngloSaxon style free market system It emphasizes that the continuity of state led capitalism is compatible with institutional change Some institutionalists insist that the continuity of Korean developmentalism is based on path dependency In contrast this book argues that Korean capitalism could sustain its state developmentalism by changes in policies and instruments to improve national industrial competitiveness in the changed context of international competition This book will be of interest to East Asian scholars comparative economists and those curious about the future of the Korean peninsula

Development Without Freedom Songok Han Thornton, 2016-12-05 Thanks to the inroads of IMFism and the war on terror America has lost much of the soft power it enjoyed in Asia during the early 1990s The winners by default are some of the world's most undemocratic development models such as Sino globalism Asian values took a hard blow from the Asian Crash but have returned in this even more virulent form The West is left sitting on the sidelines of a distinctly Asian contest of development with or without freedom Development Without Freedom explores this crucial trial by development which will define the politics of globalization for decades to come

Systemic Competitiveness Klaus Esser, Wolfgang Hillebrand, Dirk Messner, Jörg Meyer-Stamer, 2013-10-18 The authors emphasize that an economy's competitiveness relies on purposive and intermeshed measures at the meta macro meso and micro level and a multidimensional guidance concept consisting of competition dialogue and shared decision making which integrates the key groups of actors
