Shaping The Easter Feast:

Shaping the Easter Feast Anscar J. Chupungco, 1992 Explore how Easter is a celebration intrinsically linked to nature

Passover and Easter Paul F. Bradshaw, Lawrence A. Hoffman, 2000-02-15 Passover and Easter constitute for Jews and Christians respectively the most important festivals of the year. Although sharing a common root, the feasts have developed in quite distinct ways in the two traditions in part independently of one another and in part in reaction against the other. Following the pattern set in earlier volumes in this series, these two volumes bring together a group of distinguished Jewish and Christian scholars to explore the history of the two celebrations, paying particular attention to similarities and connections between them as well as to differences and contrasts. They not only present a convenient summary of current historical thought but also open up new perspectives on the evolution of these annual observances. Volume 5 in the series focuses especially on the origins and early development of the feasts and on the way that established practices have changed in recent years. Volume 6 also in the series focuses on the contexts in which they occur, the periods of preparation for the feasts in the respective calendars and their connection to Shavuot, Pentecost as well as to their traditional expression in art and music. At the same time, the essays raise some fundamental questions about the future: Have modern human beings so lost the sense of sacred time in their lives that these great feasts can never again be what they once were for former generations of believers? And what about recent attempts by some Christians to enter into their heritage by celebrating a Jewish Seder as part of their annual Holy Week and Easter services? Specialists and general readers alike will find much to interest and challenge them within these two additions to what has become a highly regarded series in the world of liturgical scholarship.

The Three-Day Feast Gail Ramshaw, 2004-12-13 Recent decades have witnessed the revival of the ancient liturgies of the Three Days: Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil. In this book, Ramshaw gives a little history and a lot of suggestions about how these services can enrich the worship life of your entire assembly. The Worship Matters Studies Series examines key worship issues through studies by pastors, musicians, and lay people from throughout the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Features include informal and insightful writing for all readers. Study questions at the end of every chapter. Examines vital issues in weekly worship. Helps leaders and congregants understand and experience worship more richly.

Between Memory and Hope Maxwell E. Johnson, 2016-03-24 This anthology surveys the development and theology of the liturgical year in the order of its historical evolution: From Sabbath to Sunday, From Passover to Pascha, Lent, Holy Week, Easter, and Pentecost, and From Pascha to Parousia, Epiphany, Christmas, and Advent. In addition, introductory essays on the meaning of the liturgical year and a short concluding section on the sanctoral cycle. From Parousia to Persons are also provided. While written as a companion to standard works in the field, beginning with graduate students in liturgy and seminarians, this book is intended for all pastors, liturgists, catechists, religious educators who seek to live according to the Church's theology of time as it is reflected in its calendar of feasts and seasons Through feast and fast through festival and preparation the liturgical year celebrates the presence of the already crucified and risen Christ among us today Between Memory and Hope shows that to live between past and future between memory and hope is to remember Christ's passion as we encounter his presence among us now and as we await his coming again in glory Articles and their contributors are The Liturgical Year Studies Prospects Reflections by Robert F Taft SJ Liturgical Time in the Ancient Church The State of Research by Thomas J Talley Day of the Lord Day of Mystery by H Boone Porter Sunday The Heart of the Liturgical Year by Mark Seale The Frequency of the Celebration of the Eucharist Throughout History by Robert F Taft SJ History and Eschatology in the Primitive Pascha by Thomas J Talley The Origins of Easter by Paul F Bradshaw The Three Days and the Forty Days by Patrick Regan OSB The Veneration of the Cross by Patrick Regan OSB Holy Week in the Byzantine Tradition by Robert F Taft SJ The Origin of Lent at Alexandria by Thomas J Taley Preparation for Pascha Lent in Christian Antiquity by Maxwell E Johnson The Fifty Days and the Fiftieth Day by Patrick Regan OSB Making the Most of Trinity Sunday by Catherine Mowry LaCugna Constantine and Christmas by Thomas J Taley The Origins of Christmas The State of the Question by Susan K Roll The Appearance of the Light at the Baptism of Jesus and the Origins of the Feast of Epiphany by Gabriele Winkler The Origins and Evolution of Advent by Martin J Connell On Feasting the Saints by John F Baldovin SJ The Marian Liturgical Tradition by Kilian McDonnell OSB Forgetting and Remembering the Saints by James F White The One Mediator the Saints and Mary a Lutheran Reflection by Maxwell E Johnson and The Liturgical Year Calendar for a Just Community by John F Baldovin SJ
