

A Celebration of Life for

Hannah Erickson-Diehl

will be held

October 5th at 1 PM at the I BAR Ranch
Service followed by food and drink to celebrate her life between friends and family.

Her Story

It is with deep sadness we announce the untimely passing of Hannah Erickson-Diehl on 9-26-24 in Gunnison, Colorado.

Hannah was born on April 18th, 1995 in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Life brought her to Gunnison in the fall of 2013 to attend college where she excelled in Track and Field and studied Biology. Her outgoing nature led her to her husband Andrew Diehl. Together, their desire to help their community inspired them both to join the Law Enforcement profession. Hannah enjoyed being an outdoor adventurer, and was a lover of animals, arts and crafts, flowers...especially sunflowers...dinosaurs and exercise. They experienced their greatest joy on September 10th, 2024 with the birth of their first child, a beautiful baby girl, Eleanor Mae. As Andrew & Hannah were preparing for their first nature walk, Hannah collapsed and passed away shortly after. Hannah is survived by her Husband Andrew, baby Daughter Eleanor, Mother, Father, Sister Two Brothers, Nephew and extended family.

Her memory will live on in everyone who knew her and their responsibility to her memory, will be to share their memories of Hannah with Eleanor as she grows, so she may too, know the mother she will forever miss.

A First Responder's procession will be departing from Cross Fit in Gunnison to Hwy 50 and then to the I-BAR Ranch. Please take a few minutes to observe the passing at some point on the route if you are able.

Hannah loved sunflowers. We encourage anyone planning on attending to wear jeans and a YELLOW shirt

A Tragic Vision Ann M. McCulloch, 1983 Saltwater Mary Eyring, 2025-02-18 Death is easy to locate in the archives of early America Grief is not so easily pinned down Yet it was a near constant companion for the men and women that settled in what is now New England Their lives were a kaleidoscope of small scale tragedies that suffused and colored everyday experiences This pervasive suffering was exacerbated by unfamiliar environments and exposure to the anguish of Indigenous and Black Americans unsettling well worn frameworks to produce new dimensions of everyday grief Mary Eyring traces these fleeting often mundane glimpses of grief in the archives a note about a sailor maimed during a whaling voyage the hint of a miscarriage in a court record the suggestion of domestic violence within a tract on witchcraft a house sent up in flames at the opening of a captivity narrative to show how the cumulative weight of grief created a persistent mood that influenced public and private affairs in sweeping ways largely unexamined by previous scholars With piercing insights and evocative prose Eyring follows grief across generations and oceans to reveal a language of suffering understood and shared across diverse early American communities

Others in Mind Philippe Rochat, 2009-02-09 In this book Philippe Rochat explores self consciousness how it originates and how it shapes our lives arguably the most important and revealing of all psychological problems Why are we so prone to guilt and embarrassment Why do we care so much about how others see us about our reputation What are the origins of such afflictions Rochat argues that it is because we are members of a species that evolved the unique propensity to reflect upon themselves as an object of thoughts an object of thoughts that is potentially evaluated by others Based on empirical observations this is a book of ideas tapping into both developmental and anthropological phenomena and guided by strong existential intuitions regarding the human condition At the core of these intuitions there is the idea that human psychic life is predominantly determined by what we imagine others perceive of us

Talking Books G. O. Hutchinson, 2008-08-14 Increasing importance is being attached to how Greek and Latin books of poems were arranged but such research has often been carried out with little attention to the physical fragments of actual ancient poetry books In this extensive study Gregory Hutchinson investigates the design of Greek and Latin books of poems in the light of papyri including recent discoveries A series of discussions of major poems and collections from two central periods of Greek and Latin literature is framed by a substantial and illustrated survey of poetry books and reading and by a more theoretical discussion of structures involving books The main poets discussed are Callimachus Apollonius Posidippus Catullus Horace and Ovid a chapter on Latin didactic includes Lucretius Virgil Ovid and Manilius

Performing Oaths in Classical Greek Drama Judith Fletcher,2011-11-24 Oaths were ubiquitous rituals in ancient Athenian legal commercial civic and international spheres Their importance is reflected by the fact that much of surviving Greek drama features a formal oath sworn before the audience This is the first comprehensive study of that phenomenon The book explores how the oath can mark or structure a dramatic plot at times compelling characters like Euripides Hippolytus to act contrary to their best interests It demonstrates how dramatic oaths resonate with oath rituals familiar to the Athenian audiences Aristophanes Lysistrata and her accomplices for example swear an oath that blends protocols of international treaties with priestesses vows of sexual abstinence By employing the principles of speech act theory this book examines how the performative power of the dramatic oath can mirror the status quo but also disturb categories of gender social status and civic identity in ways that redistribute and confound social authority Sharing Jesus ,1928 Crossing Thresholds
