Anglo-American Relations Alan Dobson, Steve Marsh, 2013-01-17 This book provides an examination of contemporary Anglo American relations Sometimes controversially referred to as the Special Relationship Anglo American relations constitute arguably the most important bilateral relationship of modern times However in recent years there have been frequent pronouncements that this relationship has lost its specialness This volume brings together experts from Britain Europe and North America in a long overdue examination of contemporary Anglo American relations that paints a somewhat different picture The discussion ranges widely from an analysis of the special relationship of culture and friendship to an examination of both traditional e g nuclear relations and more recent e g environment policies

Contemporary developments are discussed in the context of longer term trends and contributing authors draw upon a range of different disciplines including political science diplomacy studies business studies and economics Coupled with a substantive introduction and conclusion the result is an insightful and engaging portrayal of the complex Anglo American relationship The book will be of great interest to students of US and UK foreign policy diplomacy and international relations in general

The Age of Capitalism, Consumer Culture, and the Collapse of Nature in the Anthropocene Jack Thornburg, 2024-10-02 The Age of Capitalism Consumer Culture and the Collapse of Nature in the Anthropocene argues that the stability of post industrial postmodern society is threatened by the convergence of three distinct yet interrelated crises environmental degradation capitalist economic development and the primacy of consumption and self absorption as the basis for economic development at the expense of community and social relationships Jack Thornburg contrasts advanced modern society with indigenous cultures in terms of nature and conceptions of the communal self The complex nature of capitalist oriented society has influenced how individuals conceptualize themselves The outcome the author contends is a competitive society in which individuals are alienated living in uncertain times One consequence of these crises all of which derive from the Enlightenment and the concomitant appearance and evolution of capitalism has been the destruction of a worldview balancing and connecting well being with prosperity of the natural world Money and materialism cannot buy happiness as capitalist narrative asserts Thornburg claims that the happiness sought by individuals seeking meaning through consumption can only be realized by reintegrating nature with the human spirit
